The Atlanta Orthodox Jewish community has expanded and grown by leaps and bounds in the last half century, since the founding of Congregation Beth Jacob in the early 1960s. Atlanta is now home to dozens of Orthodox establishments, including shuls, day schools, a yeshiva, Kollels, kosher stores, caterers, restaurants, and so much more. We're glad you're here - and look forward to welcoming you in person!

MEET THE RABBIS & REBBETZINS

Rabbi Emanuel & Estelle Feldman served as Rabbi and Rebbetzin from 1952 until 1991, building and developing Beth Jacob into one of North America's most dynamic Jewish communities. Following their retirement, the Feldmans made aliyah and return to Atlanta periodically. Rabbi Feldman is the author of numerous books, articles, and scholarly essays.

Rabbi Emanuel & Estelle Feldman
Rabbi & Rebbetzin Emeritus

Rabbi Ilan D. & Miriam Feldman, nationally renowned Rabbinic and educational figures, have served as senior rabbi and rebbetzin for more than 3 decades, influencing every aspect of growth in the Toco Hill community. In addition to his Shul role, Rabbi Feldman is founder of the Atlanta Scholars Kollel, Dean of the Atlanta Kashruth Commission, and Rabbinic Advisor for Torah Day School of Atlanta. Rebbetzin Feldman is the founding head of school of Temima High School for Girls, where she has guided her students for over three decades.

Rabbi Dov & Rivka Foxbrunner moved to Atlanta with their family in 2017 from Jerusalem. Since their arrival, they have become trusted advisors, leaders, and educators to our members. The Foxbrunnars give classes to men and women, provide guidance through various lifecycle events and challenges, and engage one-on-one with individuals and families to strengthen our community.

Making the decision to enroll your baby or toddler into a preschool is an important step in laying the foundation for his or her overall growth and development. We take this responsibility very seriously, which is why we offer a safe, loving environment that fosters creative learning, physical growth and development, and social maturation. We encourage team work, cooperation, and individual achievement through self-expression.

Beth Jacob Preschool is well-regarded for our low teacher-student ratios, affording our children the opportunity to grow and learn in a nurturing, Jewish environment where individual attention is the norm.
For ages 6 weeks - 5 years old.
