DAVENING GUIDELINES FOR ROSH HASHANAH 5781

EREV ROSH HASHANAH

Candle lighting for Shabbos and Rosh Hashana is at 7:20pm. The bracha should conclude “I’hadlik ner shel Shabbos v’shel Yom Tov” (p. 18). Women customarily recite Shebechyanu when kindling the lights.

Weekday Mincha should be completed before sundown, 7:39pm.

FIRST DAY OF ROSH HASHANAH

Friday Night

An abridged Kabbalas Shabbos is recited that begins with Mizmor Shir (p. 46). We omit Bameh Madlikin.

Both verses: V’shomru and Tiku bachodesh shofer are recited before the Amidah (p. 60).

Ma’ariv Amidah for Rosh Hashanah with proper insertions for Shabbos. In addition, beginning with “Zachrenu l’chaim” (p. 62), there are a number of insertions into the Amidah that are recited throughout Aseres Yemei Teshuva (Ten Days of Repentance).

Vayechulu is recited after the Amidah (p. 76). The beracha of “Magen Avos” is omitted when davening out of shul. This is followed by Ledovid Mizmor (p. 78), Aleinu (p.84) and L’Dovid Hashem Ori (p. 86).

Many have the custom to sing Shalom Aleichem and Eishes Chayil (p. 92).

Kiddush for Rosh Hashanah with proper Shabbos insertions. Kiddush begins “Yom HaShishi” and Shebechyanu is recited (p. 94).

The traditional symbolic foods (simanim) are eaten on the first night, along with their respective yehi ratzon (p. 96).

Birkas HaMazon should include the insertions for Shabbos and Rosh Hashanah (p. 106).

Some have the custom of learning the Mishnayos of Rosh Hashana (p. 108) during the festive and focused meals. Four chapters of the tractate and four meals on Rosh Hashana makes one chapter per meal.

If Ma’ariv was recited before nightfall (8:15pm), Shema should be repeated after nightfall.

Shabbos - Rosh Hashanah Day 1

Halachic Times:

- Latest time to recite Shema 10:27am
- When davening alone, it is preferred that Mussaf be recited after 10:27am
- Latest time to recite Shacharis 11:28am

On Rosh Hashanah, the Shir Shel Yom and L’Dovid Hashem Ori are recited at the beginning of davening (p. 178).

In many congregations, Shir HaMa’alos is recited after Yishtabach (p. 264).

Birchos Kerias Shema for Shabbos, “Hakol Yoducha” (p. 278).

Shacharis Amidah for Rosh Hashanah with the proper insertions for Shabbos (p. 296).

The Torah reading for the first day is Bereishis 21:1-34, the maftir is Bamidbar 29:1-6 and the haftarah is from Shmuel I 1:1-2:10.

The shofar is not blown on Shabbos.

Ashrei followed by Mussaf Amidah for Rosh Hashanah with proper insertions for Shabbos (p. 440).

Though not obligatory, It is commendable to study and recite the piyutim that are added to the Chazzan’s Repitition. Some more commonly recited piyutim include: Melech Elyon (p. 478), Unesaneh Tokef (p. 480), Ha’ochez b’yad midas hamishpat (p. 490), v’ye’sayu (p. 494)

Mincha Amidah for Rosh Hashanah with the proper insertions for Shabbos (p. 598). Mincha should be recited before 7:37pm.

Seudah Shlishis should ideally be eaten before the tenth hour (about 4:30pm) and preferably after reciting Mincha. If one did not do so, one may eat seudah shlishis until sunset.

Preparations for the second day may not begin until nightfall (8:13pm).

SECOND DAY OF ROSH HASHANAH

Motzei Shabbos

Candle lighting must be performed after nightfall (8:13pm).

Ma’ariv should be recited after nightfall (p.62).

Ma’ariv for Rosh Hashanah. Insert Vatodi’enu (p. 68).

Kiddush for Rosh Hashanah (p. 94), including Havdalah in the following order: Hagafen, Kiddush, Meorei Ha’Eish, Havdalah and Shebechyanu (יקנה). For halachic reasons connected to the bracha of Shebechyanu, a new fruit is customarily placed on the table before Kiddush, and is eaten after Kiddush. If one does not have a new fruit or new clothing, one may still recite Shebechyanu.

Sunday - Rosh Hashanah Day 2

Halachic Times:

- Latest time to recite Shema 10:27am
- When davening alone, it is preferred that Mussaf be recited after 10:27am
- Latest time to recite Shacharis 11:28am

On Rosh Hashanah, the Shir Shel Yom and L’Dovid Hashem Ori are recited at the beginning of davening (p. 178).

In many congregations, Shir HaMa’alos is recited after Yishtabach.

Birchos Kerias Shema for weekday (Ha’m’e’ir la’aretz, p. 278).

Shacharis Amidah for Rosh Hashanah.

The Torah reading for the second day is Bereishis 22:1-22:24, the maftir is Bamidbar 29:1-6 and the haftarah is from Yirmiyahu 31:1- 31:19.

Men are obligated to perform the mitzva of hearing the shofar on the second day of Rosh Hashana this year. It is a particularly strong custom that women perform this mitzva as well.

If someone davening at home can blow shofar on his own, he should blow the first thirty sounds before Mussaf. The second thirty sounds should not be blown during the silent Amidah. One may blow 70 additional sounds after the Amidah, but there is no requirement to do so.

If someone else is blowing shofar on behalf of others:

- If the ba’al toke’a (shofar blower) already fulfilled his mitzvah, the berachos (lishmo’ah kol shofar and shebechyanu) should ideally be recited by one of the listeners. If the listeners are all women, the ba’al toke’a may not recite the berachos; they must be recited by one of the women on behalf of the others.
- If the listeners are spread out across a large area, or if one cannot hear the beracha, each person can recite his/her own beracha.
- Only 30 sounds need to be blown.

Ashrei, followed by Mussaf Amidah for Rosh Hashanah (p. 440).

Though not obligatory, it is commendable to study and recite the piyutim that are added to the Chazzan’s Repitition. Some more commonly recited piyutim include: L’kel orech din (p. 538), Unesaneh Tokef (p. 538), Ha’ochez b’yad midas hamishpat (p. 546), V’ye’sayu (p. 550).

Mincha Amidah for Rosh Hashanah with the proper insertions for Shabbos (p. 598). Mincha should be recited before 7:36pm.

Traditionally Tashlich (p. 630) is recited on Rosh Hashanah afternoon (not on Shabbos) next to a body of water. If this cannot be performed with proper social distancing measures, one can recite it any time until Yom Kippur. If it was not done before Yom Kippur, there is still some benefit in reciting it until Hoshana Rabba.

MOTZEI YOM TOV/TZOM GEDALIAH

Weekday Amidah should be recited, including Atah Chonantanu and the special insertions for Aseres Yemei Teshuva.

Havdalah consists of two berachos: HaGafen and HaMavdil (no besamim or eish).

The fast begins at 6:13am and ends at 8:09pm.
