Community life synagogues Hendon

A newly established community in Hendon, Nishmas Yisroel, has joined the Federation of Synagogues.

Its rabbi, Dovid Tugendhaft, was previously minister of Ohr Yisroel, the Federation synagogue in Elstree.

Federation chief executive Eli Keinwald described Nishmas Yisroel as “the fastest growing minyan in north-west London.
