

Genesis 3:6-10

3:6 The woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise. She took of its fruit and ate, and she gave some to her husband beside her and he ate.

3:7 The eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked. They sewed fig leaves together and made themselves loinclothes.

3:8 They heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the breeze of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden

3:9 The Lord God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?"

3:10 The man said, "I heard Your sound in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked and hid myself.
