

Questions to Consider

What characters in either or both poems can you relate to?

What are the common themes of the poem and the story?

Why is the story titled "Spring Rain"?

How do the poet and George compare/contrast?

How do their silences differ?

What is the difference between things left unsaid and things unsayable?

What different expectations of the poem/story did you have?

Choose important lines (to you) that help you understand the poem and/or story?