ABOUT ISRAEL BONDS

Established in 1951, by David Ben-Gurion at a Madison Square Garden rally, the Israel Bonds enterprise ranks among Israel's most valued economic and strategic resources, with a record of proven success. Praised for its dependability, the Bonds organization has helped build every sector of Israel's economy.

Following its launch in New York, the Bonds organization – formally known as Development Corporation for Israel in the U.S. – began operations in Canada (Canada-Israel Securities, Ltd.) and then Europe and Latin America (Development Company for Israel [International] Ltd).

Although Israel bonds are not rated, the Bonds enterprise has been consistently cited by ratings agencies as a factor in their assessments of Israel's overall debt. In a June 2018 report, Moody's stated, "Israel's financing will also benefit from considerable foreign demand in its Israel Bonds program aimed at the Jewish diaspora, which has shown a willingness to support (Israel) in times of external shocks."

Warren Buffett, the world's most famous investor who proudly holds Israel bonds in his portfolio, called investing in Israel bonds:

"A deserved endorsement of a remarkable country."

Advocating investment and pride in Israel through the sale of Israel bonds is global in scope. Worldwide sales have surpassed $42 billion since the first bonds were issued in 1951. In 2018, annual U.S. Israel bond sales exceeded $1 billion for the sixth consecutive year.

Proceeds from the sale of Israel bonds have played a decisive role in Israel's rapid evolution into a groundbreaking, global leader in high-tech, greentech and biotech.
