Sara Malka

This class has begun.

Why do we eat matzah on Pesach? Why do say Shema twice a day? What is Hashem's goal in creating the world? Join us in discovering the answers to these and many other questions. Clarify and solidify your emunah in an insecure and threatening world.

12:45 – 1:45 (Kol Torah Minyan / Breakfast Room)

Parenting Made Easier - with Shalom Bayit as the Foundation!

Chana Cohen, M.A.,M.S.Ed., School Psychologist

This is a parenting / marital happiness course loaded with skills and how to's. The course will include these topics and more: "How to Say No and Feel Great About it", "Presenting a United Front; Giving One Message", "It's Never Too Late to Repair a Relationship", "We Blew It, Now What Do We Do?", "Getting a Perspective on Your Most Challenging Child."

Chana Cohen has been counseling and caring for our community for over 20 years. Her mission has been to teach the marital and parenting skills needed to develop happy, well-adjusted families.

1:00 – 1:50 (Synagogue #3)

Parasha

Rabbi Joey Mizrahi

Rabbi Mizrahi will be giving a class on the weekly parasha with a focus on points of interest for women. We invite you to take advantage.

Rabbi Joey Mizrahi has been teaching in Shaare Torah Boys High School for many years and is now serving our community as a Rabbi in Shaare Zion Congregation. All those who have been privileged to attend his classes leave contented and uplifted.

TUESDAY

•NEW!

10:45 – 11:30 (Synagogue #3)

Mission: Marriage Mastery, Building a Jewish Home

Caroline Haber

Understand the goals, the responsibilities, and the delicate art of successful marriage. With Torah and the wisdom of the Sages as her foundation, Mrs. Haber draws on her years of working with singles and marrieds to guide us. In this course, we will learn approach and practical tools to a flourishing and rewarding relationship.

•BACK AGAIN!

11:30 – 12:25 (Synagogue #3)

Strive for Truth

Caroline Haber

We learn the popular Michtav M'Eliyahu/Strive for Truth by the mussar master Rabbi Eliyahu Dessler zt'l. Rabbi Dessler clarifies for us through a Torah lens such fundamentals as human nature, reward and punishment, free choice, suffering, miracles and much more. This class will answer age old questions and challenge us to think in new and rewarding ways.

WEDNESDAY

12:30 – 1:30 (Synagogue #3)

Timely Topics of Study for the Jewish Woman
Rabbi Meyer Yedid

Rabbi Yedid has been inspiring the ladies of our community weekly for years. His class covers a variety of subjects including topics corresponding to the Parasha and Holidays. We are fortunate to have the Rabbi continue dedicating his time to the education of the women of our community.

10:15 – 11:15 (Kol Torah Minyan / Breakfast Room)
Mishlei: The Wisdom of King Solomon
Frieda Dagmy

Through the eyes of King Solomon, the wisest of all men, we learn how to refine our Midot including patience, friendship, respect and the honor due parents. The class will focus on the potential and mission of the Jewish woman.

Teacher par excellence, beloved to all her students, Mrs. Dagmy has been teaching a variety of classes in our community for 13 years.

10:15 – 11:00 (Synagogue #3)
Pirkei Avot and Personal Growth
Sarah M. Haddad

The class covers both the simple meaning and the deeper layer of the mishnah. Revealing it's meaning and relevance to contemporary living.

Charming and refined, Sarah Haddad is well versed in everything she teaches. She has been teaching in our community for over 25 years.

11:00 – 11:15 (Synagogue #3)
Shalom Bayit Focus
Sarah M. Haddad

There are certain parts of our life that always need strengthening – marriage is one of them. The time devoted to attending this class will give a boost and clarity that every marriage can benefit from.

11:15 – 12:15 (Synagogue #3)
Taharat Hamishpacha Married Refresher
Sarah Haddad

This class is an easy way to keep our knowledge of the Laws of Family Purity accurate and to infuse new spirit and joy into our lives.

1:15 – 2:15 (Synagogue #3)
Relationships / Character Perfection
Esther Tawachi

Some of the most precious aspects of our lives are the relationships we create with family and friends. The class will include powerful tools for improving all of our relationships based on Torah lessons. One small enhancement can benefit our lives immeasurably.

Mrs. Esther Tawachi gives classes on parenting and relationships throughout the community and well as serving on the staff of Counterforce.

11:30 – 12:30 (Synagogue #3)
Tehillim
Rabbi Raphael Gelley

Using Tehilim as a base, Rabbi Gelley will draw clear and crucial lessons for contemporary living. Tehilim, perhaps more than any other book in Tanach speaks to everyone. Through the verses of Psalms, King David expresses the yearnings, gratitude, fears and rejoicing of every Jew. The more we understand the content and context of what we read, the more comfort, courage and strength we can draw from their recital.

Rabbi Raphael Gelley was the principal of Bais Yakov of Cleveland for 10 years. He teaches in many schools and lectures across the United States. We are honored to have Rabbi Gelley participate in our ladies learning program.

1:00 – 2:00 (Synagogue #3)

Parasha
Violet Chkouri
This class has begun.

This class will explore ideas from the weekly Parasha and show their relevance to our daily lives. Women of all ages are welcome.

9PM Monday (Annex)
Timely Topics for Post High School Girls
Rabbi Joey Haber

8PM Thursday (Annex)
Parasha for Post High School Girls
Rabbi Joey Mizrahi

Education should always be a part of our life's journey. It should stimulate us, challenge us and inspire us. As Jews, we have the privilege to study Torah. Torah study is not like any other study. It is the study of our glorious heritage and it has the ability to touch us so deeply, till it reaches our very soul.

We invite you to join us in Shaare Zion for some very thought provoking classes. While the content is impressive, the mood is light and there is plenty of laughter shared and friendships formed.
