

PESACH VISIONS

Doug Leblang

Listen my children and you shall hear
The story of Pesach we hold so dear
Slaves we were in the land of the Pharaohs
Longing for someone to become our new hero
That our numbers increased the Pharaoh did see
"Kill their male newborns" was his evil decree
Moses was hidden as long as they dare
A plan was devised amidst their despair
Into the basket of reeds Moses was handed
Watched by Miriam to see where it landed
The daughter of Pharaoh went to bathe in the Nile
When she saw the basket floating with the unguarded child
She adopted the child who became a great prince
Of his Jewish birth there was not a hint
A slave being whipped came into his view
He could not hold back and the Egyptian he slew
He escaped to Midian for forty long years
Then was commanded by G-d to rescue his peers
Ten plagues caused the Pharaoh to rethink his plans
And free the Jewish captives with all of their clans
To celebrate this marvel of historic dimension
We once a year strive to be worthy with actions
Like cleaning and cooking so many dishes
Out with the pizza, no pasta, no knishes
Fish that's gefillted, horseradish that stings
All to G-d's praises we gratefully sing
Matzoh and karpas and chopped up charoses
Shankbones and kiddish and Yiddish neuroses
Cousins who kvetch and children that try
To find hidden matzoh into corners they pry

With Motzi and maror and big floating knaidles
We celebrate Moses afloat in his cradle
Famines and locusts and slaves who cry out
With macaroons and sponge cake G-d's praises we shout
Matzah brei frying and water with salt
For parting the waters Hashem we exalt
All food must be marked with a capital "P"
The relatives we dislike we are now pleased to see
We sit on cushions to express our good fortune
To drink cups of wine and ask the four questions
We explain to the children what happened to us
That our brave forbearers escaped such cruel malice
To remember forever that G-d set us free
And came to our rescue when He heard our sincere plea
