HOUSE COMMITTEE NEWS

Dear Members, There was an unfortunate accident in shul this week in which three glass panels of our sanctuary mechitzah broke. Thankfully, no-one was hurt, but please note that replacement glass has temporarily been installed in order to ensure that we have a proper mechitzah for davening. We will work diligently to replace them with permanent glass asap. If you have any questions about this or any other building related matters, please email house@lss.org. Thank you.

Parshat Balak:

Parshat Balak is named for the former king of Moab. When Balak heard of Bnei Yisrael's power, he felt threatened, and sent for Bilam, a sorcerer, to curse them. Bilam knew the exact time of day Hashem was angry and at that precise moment, would use powers to inflict harm. King Balak kept sending many gifts to entice Bilam, and Hashem allowed Bilam to meet King Balak, but would not allow Bilam to curse Bnei Yisrael. On the road to meet King Balak, Bilam's donkey saw an angel in the path and swerved to get out of the way. Angry and frustrated, Bilam hit the donkey. The donkey shocks Bilam by speaking, asking "why are you hitting me," and warning Bilam of the angel in front of them. Yet Bilam continues and when he finally meets Balak, Bilam disobeys Hashem and attempts to curse Bnei Yisrael. Instead of cursing them though, Bilam blesses Bnei Yisrael and says Ma Tov "How goodly are your tents, O Jacob, your dwelling places, Israel" which is the first prayer that Jews everywhere say each morning.

After Shul, ask your children..

- 1.Where was Balak king?
- 2.Why did King Balak want to curse Bnei Yisrael?
- 3.Who was Bilam?
- 4.What happened when Bilam's donkey was traveling?
- 5.Which special part of davening is found from Bilam's praise?

Baby & Me Recap

This past Shabbat, the babes learned two great life skills, making challah and making a Kiddush Hashem. Through the story Way Too Much Challah Dough, the babes learned of a young girl who used too much yeast. Key Takeaway: When in doubt, it's best to call safta. The babes continued with Wherever we Go!, a book about making a Kiddush Hashem. We learned to be conscious of our behavior -- no screaming at the animals in the zoo or throwing garbage.

Thank you to everyone who came out to the Baby & Me brunch this past Sunday. The event was a huge hit with over 40 people!. The babes engaged all five senses, tasting delicious foods, making and smelling new Besamim bags for Havdalah, feeling kinetic sand and building sand castles, hearing great music, and seeing/creating great fingerprint artwork.

Lincoln Square Synagogue Youth Groups Policy

Please note that with the exception of Baby & Me, it is Lincoln Square Synagogue policy that all youth groups are drop-off only. Adults are NOT allowed to stay in groups and will be asked to leave. For safety reasons, please respect the policy and do not expect to be permitted to stay.

Special Announcement:

We bid farewell and au revoir to the wonderful Youth Club members who left for camp this week. Wishing everyone a safe and fun time! Shabbat groups for age 8+ will resume in the fall!

We're writing letters!

Tell us where your child is for the summer so we can write. Email youth@lss.org and don't forget to include the camp address.

Shabbat Shalom! Ariella & Mendel Lazaros
