Biblical mention of Shmini Atzeret can be found in Parshat Emor 23:36: “On the eighth day...you shall not do any laborious work.” Here in New York City and anywhere outside of Israel, we call the second day of Shmini Atzeret, ‘Simchat Torah,’ because our ancestors had a sofek, ‘a doubt’ of the correct date. So what’s the meaning behind gathering on the eighth day? The Medrish gives an example of a king who made the best party for his closest friends and relatives for seven days and seven nights but as it drew towards the end, everyone got sad because it was ending. The King then gathered everyone and extended the party for one more day, the eighth day. Similarly, after celebrating Sukkot for seven days, our King, Hashem, cannot bear to see us so sad to separate and gave us the eighth day, Shmini Atzeret.

Join the Youth Club for an action-packed Shmini Atzeret, Simchat Torah, and Shabbat Parshat Bereishit!

Breast Cancer Awareness Month at LSS

LSS is proud to partner with Sharsheret to offer toys and makeup to family’s affected with breast cancer.

Best Face Forward: The best face forward kit provides resources that address the cosmetic side effects of radiation and chemo therapy treatments including hair loss, thinning eyebrows and eyelashes, dry skin, and changes in skin tone. Also included in the kit are easy to follow makeup application instructions and a sampling of cosmetics and skin care products. The kit is free of charge and mailed to women’s homes.

Busy Box for Young Parents Facing Breast Cancer: The busy box provides resources to help educate parents on how to guide young children through their mother’s cancer journey and address the needs of their young children during the diagnosis, treatment, and beyond. The busy box, which is free of charge, and mailed directly to the family’s home, includes age and gender appropriate games and activities to occupy children during doctor appointments or while mom is resting after treatment. Please pick up flyers in the shul lobby which details items for donation. Collection boxes are located in the shul office. Collection ends Tuesday, October 31.
Lincoln Square Synagogue Film Club invites you to the Opening Night of the 2017-18 film season with a special screening of:

Ben-Gurion, Epilogue

coop-sponsored by American Associates, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev

November 4th, 2017 @ 8:00pm

Nearly 50 years ago, Israel’s former Prime Minister David Ben Gurion—then 82 and living in spartan retirement on Kibbutz Sde Boker—was interviewed for a film project that never saw the light of day. The six hours of footage was only recently unearthed, then reassembled and edited to present the distinctive voice and vision of one the great architects of the State of Israel to a new generation. Intimate, revealing, often surprising, the wide-ranging conversation offers a unique perspective on the Zionist enterprise then and now.

Screening will be followed by Q&A with Alon Ben-Gurion, grandson of David Ben-Gurion.

Tickets are $15 in advance/$20 at the door
