7:35pm • Mincha in the Main Sanctuary

8:00pm • Yom Hashoah Ceremony and Film Presentation in the Belfer Beit Midrash. Menachem & Fred is the story of two brothers who for decades feared to meet. Attempting to repress their past and build new lives, the brothers buried dark secrets in their hearts. Only when rare letters were found, letters from their parents who were in a concentration camp at the time, to the orphanage where the brothers hid during the second world war, did Menachem and Fred start to re-establish contact and come to terms with their past.

12:30am-1:00am • West End Synagogue • Reading of the Names • Members of UWS congregations will be coming to WES for the annual recitation of the names of those we lost in the Shoah. The reading begins at 10:00pm, with a half-hour of names read by rabbis of the UWS and the timeslot for LSS members is from 12:30-1:30am. If you have never done this before, it is a quietly moving experience, and one you'll long remember. Members of other UWS Jewish communities will continue reading names throughout the night until dawn. The reading of the names will continue throughout the day on Monday, 4/24, from 9am-6pm at the JCC 334 Amsterdam Ave. at 76th Street, in the 7th floor BM.
