

UPDATED COVID ATTENDANCE GUIDELINES

In view of the current high rates of coronavirus infection and hospitalizations, NY City health officials now strongly recommend that all individuals wear medical-grade masks in public indoor settings citywide. While wearing masks is optional at LSS services for adults and children, regardless of vaccination status, and indoor kiddushim and meals are not limited to vaccinated individuals, we strongly encourage all who feel more comfortable or more safe wearing masks to do so, and we ask that attendees be sensitive to the comfort and safety concerns of others at shul by respecting any social distancing or masking desires of others. In addition, we request that anyone who is sick or has recently been exposed to coronavirus stay home and get tested.

Shirley Stark, this year's guest of honor, has been involved in nearly every major Shul project since she and her husband, Mark Hus, first joined the Shul as a young couple.

As LSS president, the first woman to serve in the role, Shirley brought her warmth, professionalism, endless energy and passion to leading the Shul and running its operations. This passion was also reflected in her professional life, where she spent her legal career working on behalf of the people of the state of New York as an Assistant Attorney General and as the Chief Operating Officer of a large NY State agency.

If you ask Shirley what one of her favorite moments as president was, she would inevitably tell you that it was when a young girl approached her to say "I want to be a Shul President someday just like you!"

Shirley and Mark take great pride in their children - Rabbi Moshe and Shula, Rabbi Michael and Ora, and Elisha and Allison - who have taken on responsibilities of leadership and service in their own communities.

Mazal tov to Shirley on this well-deserved honor!

YOUTH DVAR TORAH

By Romy Sanger

"אם בחוקותי תלכו ואת מצותי תשמרו ועשיתם אותם" If you follow my statutes, and keep my mitzvot, and perform them, says Hashem, then He promises Klal Yisrael great reward, peace, and security with G-d's Presence in their midst in Eretz Yisrael.

This introductory passage to our parsha seems somewhat redundant. Why couldn't the Torah just state if you keep my mitzvot? Why the need to add on the phrases "בחוקותי תלכו" and "מצותי תשמרו"?

Rashi quotes Torat Kohanim that the first phrase "אם בחוקותי תלכו" does not refer to the performance of mitzvot. Rather, it directs us to toil in Torah – shetihyu 'ameilim baTorah. Rashi then explains that the next phrase, "ואת", refers to learning Torah in order to perform mitzvot. Gur Aryeh explains that sh'mira as in "מצותי תשמרו" means to internalize the teachings of the Torah to move from the theoretical to the practical. The passuk then ends with "ועשיתם אותם" directing us to actually perform the mitzvot. The Torah, in effect, is commanding us in the totality of 'avodat Hashem: study accompanied by great effort, internalization of the study, and actual performance of the mitzvot.

QUESTIONS

1. What does "Bechukotai" mean?
2. How does Rashi translate Bechukotai?
3. What does Bechukotai begin with?
4. What will happen if the people disregard G-d's commands?

1. [If] in my statutes [you walk].
2. "Follow my laws"
3. Promises of good things that will come when we follow G-d's ways
4. Terrible suffering, illness and exile

UPCOMING EVENTS

THIS Sunday, May 29th: Celebrate Yom Yerushalayim with LSS and Babayit. 8:30am. Location: Ballroom. Shacharit and Musical Hallel for Yom Yerushalayim followed by a shiur with Rabbi Moshe Taragin followed by a breakfast. Topic: Returning to Yerushalayim and Returning to History.

Rabbi Moshe Taragin has been a Ram at Yeshivat Har Etzion in Gush Etzion for the past 27 years. In addition, Rabbi Taragin currently teaches at the Stella K. Abraham Beit Midrash for Women of Yeshivat Har Etzion in Migdal Oz in Gush Etzion. He is the author of an Internet shiur entitled "Talmudic Methodology" with over 5,000 subscribers, a weekly shiur on Pirkei Avot with over 1400 subscribers, and has delivered hundreds of audio shiurim featured on the Yeshivat Har Etzion "Audio Beit Midrash" (KMTT) as well as on YU Torah online. Rabbi Taragin has authored a Yom Ha'atzmaut Machzor for Koren publishing house. He and his wife have 8 children and reside in Gush Etzion.

Tuesday, May 31st: Meeting of Board of Trustees and Governors: 7:00pm.

Wednesday, June 8th: Membership Meeting: 7:00pm.

Shabbat June 11th, Scholar in Residence with Rabbanit Esti Rosenberg, Rosh Beit Midrash of the Stella K. Abraham Beit Midrash for Women of Yeshivat Har Etzion at Migdal Oz. Please see flyer for the full schedule. Rabbanit Esti Rosenberg made aliyah with her parents, HaRav Aharon zt"l and Dr. Tovah Lichtenstein, in 1971. In 1997 she founded the Stella K. Abraham Beit Midrash for Women of Yeshivat Har Etzion at Migdal Oz and has served as the Rosh Beit Midrash since its establishment. ## DVAR TORAH

Parshat Bechukotai
May 27-28, 2021*
Written by: Morris Shamah

"FANATICS RATIONALISTS SPIRITUALISTS TRADITIONALISTS"

So, Ron Platzer asked me to write a piece for the Echod.

Great—I have a chance to write about the contrast between the Nominalism of Pharisee halacha and the realism of the Qumran documents. No. No—why not write about the Rambam's esoteric view of Divine providence, as listed in Book Two of the Moreh Nevuchim, or maybe about his concept of Olam Haba.

Wait a minute—are you stupid, Morris? Is this what this shul-wide publication is about? Is it meant to be an academic showplace for one's latest readings or to be a spiritual and uplifting encouragement to one and all? Of course. the Echod Dvar Torah is meant to be a feel-good encouraging piece to be read by young and old, by scholars and lay people, by children and adults. So why show off?

When a successful Rabbi delivers his sermon, he also faces several choices. Should he exhibit his brilliant exposition of some fine point of the Parasha, should he give an Elmer Gantry-type, fire and brimstone speech to get his members to observe more, or should he wax nostalgic about the previous generations of members? No, the good Rabbi will try to get the right blend of all the above and more to achieve the goal of increasing Jewish involvement—much like we hear from our Rabbi, Rabbi Shaul Robinson.

When I was a young adult there were two basic groups in my synagogue, Shaare Zion, in Brooklyn. There was the studious, advanced, intellectual, observant sector, and there were the average amcha, the regular practicing Jew. It was most interesting that on Shabbat mornings, there were two minyanim: one, the smaller early minyan where most of the serious students of Torah would pray and learn, and the much larger and later "regular" minyan that was attended by most of the regulars, the average observant Jews that were not into heavy learning, debate and intellectualism but that surely wanted the inspiration of a sermon, the spiritualism of prayer and the camaraderie of their friends.

Nowadays, in Brooklyn, like in many other areas, there are 'shiurim' by Rabbis that are not so intellectual, in fact, shiurim where at times the subject matter is almost childish. But the people eat it up — they love it— many of these classes are attended by hundreds of Jews!

In the past, I would mock and belittle these enclaves. Now I realize that I was wrong. There are those that need and want deep extensive Torah studies, philosophy, history, etymology, archeology, and even comparative religion, in order to get close to the Almighty. And then there are those that need a lot of Carlebach, a fair measure of kindergarten-level midrash, and a few Chasidic tales to get near to the same G-d.

So, to some: "of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh"; to others: "you shall study it (TORAH), day and night." We are all somewhere on this spectrum. At different stages of life, we may find that the right combination for each must be reiterated and rebalanced.

We in Lincoln Square are so lucky to have the full variety of traditional Jewish components available to us.

Shabbat Shalom!
