

UPDATED COVID ATTENDANCE GUIDELINES

In view of the current high rates of coronavirus infection and hospitalizations, NY City health officials now strongly recommend that all individuals wear medical-grade masks in public indoor settings citywide. While wearing masks is optional at LSS services for adults and children, regardless of vaccination status, and indoor kiddushim and meals are not limited to vaccinated individuals, we strongly encourage all who feel more comfortable or more safe wearing masks to do so, and we ask that attendees be sensitive to the comfort and safety concerns of others at shul by respecting any social distancing or masking desires of others. In addition, we request that anyone who is sick or has recently been exposed to coronavirus stay home and get tested.

YOUTH DVAR TORAH

By Romy Sanger

One of the many commandments given to us in this week's Parsha, Parshat Behar, is the commandment of not lending with interest. In Pesukim לה to לז, we are commanded,

וְכִי־יִמָּדֵד אִחִיךָ וַיִּמָּטֶה יָדוֹ עִמָּךְ וַיִּחַזֶּקְתָּ בּוֹ גֵּר וְתוֹשֵׁב וְחִי עִמָּךְ. אֲלֵתִּיקַח מֵאִתּוֹ גִּנְשָׁךְ וְתִרְבִּית וְיִהְיֶה מֵאֵלֶיךָ וְחִי אִתְּךָ עִמָּךְ. אֶת־כֶּסֶףךָ לֹא־תִתֵּן לוֹ בְּגִנְשָׁךְ וּבְמִרְבִּית לֹא־תִתֵּן אֶכְלָךְ

"If your brother becomes impoverished and his means falter in your proximity, you shall strengthen him — proselyte or resident — so that he can live with you. Do not take from him interest and increase; and you shall fear your G-d — and let your brother live with you. Do not give him your money for interest, and do not give your food for increase."

We are told that we need to help our fellow Jews without gaining for ourselves.

Strangely, in the very next pasuk G-d says, אֲנִי ה', אֵלֶיכֶם אֲשֶׁר־הוֹצֵאתִי אֶתְכֶם, "I am Hashem, your G-d, Who took you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, to be G-d unto you."

Why do these Pasukim follow one another? What is the juxtaposition? Rabbi Mordechai Kamenetzky explains that when G-d took us out of Egypt, He gave us lots of riches from the Egyptian people and then even more after. G-d requested that when we took the money, we do not take advantage. We use the money for positivity and not greed and our own benefit.

QUESTIONS

1. What year is the Shemita year?
2. When was the Yovel year?
3. What did G-d say the reward would be for observing the Yovel year properly?
4. If sowing and harvesting were forbidden during the sabbath year, how could people survive?

1. The seventh year
2. The 50th year
3. The land would yield its fruit and we would eat until we had enough;
4. G-d said that during the sixth year there would be such an abundance of crops that it would last for three years, until another crop could be harvested (25:20-21).

Pinkus's biting critique of Tel Aviv's provincial character and its residents' shtetl mentality is delivered with a perfect combination of wit, humor, and tender pathos. ## DVAR TORAH

Parshat Behar
May 20-21, 2022
By: Michael Laufer

Parshat Behar

Right out of this week's Parsha Behar - Support the Shul Dinner

LSS provides a beautiful, welcoming, spiritual home to a large and very diverse membership. We have one goal: to help Jews—regardless of their background—connect to Judaism and the Jewish people.

Lincoln Square Synagogue is at the center of the Jewish Community. No one is ever turned away and thousands of people every year turn to us for everything from a place to daven or sell their chametz or to seek spiritual counseling or with Halachic questions. And our Hospitality Committee helps hundreds of people every year find their way to a warm Shabbat or Yom Tov table.

If you would like to help support our work or say "Thank You" to LSS, please be part of our Annual Dinner and Journal Campaign. The dinner is on Sunday, June 12th and we are honoring individuals who have done so much for our community and the wider community: Shirley Stark, Betty & Gidi Grinstein, and Tanya Gershon & Joe Warshawsky.

Here are some proofs from this week's Torah reading, Leviticus 25 & 26:

1 And the Lord spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, saying... The extra phrase "on Mount Sinai" comes to teach us that the concept of contributing generously to the journal and attending the dinner was mandated already at Mt. Sinai.

8 And you shall count for yourself: Each of us needs to participate and be counted towards supporting the shul as best we can.

10 It shall be a Jubilee for you: It will surely be the best dinner as we all celebrate together

12 It shall be holy for you: Come listen to the stories of our exalted honorees – it will inevitably uplift you.

35 If your brother becomes destitute and his hand falters beside you, you shall support him: How much more so our shul which reaches out to all nooks and crannies of our community, near and far.

26:2 You shall keep My Sabbaths and fear My Sanctuary: The wonderful Sanctuary called Lincoln Square Synagogue.

Please don't miss the opportunity to attend the dinner, and please consider making a contribution at whatever level you can, even if you are unable to attend. This is the shul's largest fundraiser of the year and with your help we can continue our work of strengthening the Jewish community.

You can find more details and sign up at www.lss.org/campaign/dinner

25:9 "You shall sound the shofar throughout your land" In celebration of Shirley, Betty, Gidi, Tanya, and Joe.

Shabbat Shalom!
