They are comprised of social leaders from both countries (and Bahrain) committed to peace, normalization, and building warm, people-to-people ties in the Middle East. They are the first organization of its kind and are making terrific progress in changing hearts and minds in the Arab world and in Israel, including through organizing the Arab world's first ever Holocaust remembrance ceremony. The delegation is comprised of Israelis (Arabs and Jews), Emiratis and a Saudi, and discuss the Abraham Accords and the new Middle East that is forming. Delegation members Omar Al Busaidy and Dr. Najat Al Said as well Sharaka's Director of Communications and Global Affairs Dan Feferman will be in attendance at LSS for Shabbos morning prayer services and will at the kiddush after services to talk with anyone who is interested in their work.

YOUTH AND MAGEN AVRAHAM TEEN DEPARTMENT

Shabbat Youth Groups: 10:00am (Location: second floor classrooms)
We will be offering supervised play this week. The following counselors will be supervising: Matthew Blitzer, Charlie Eden, Isabelle Kish, and Orly Stulbach. (masks required for 2+)

Dvar Torah:

The name of this week's Parsha, Eikev, literally means the 'heel' of a foot but in this context Rashi says it actually means "because." The Parsha starts by saying "Vehaya Eikev Tishma'un" -- because you will keep the Mitzvot, G-d will provide you with blessings. Rashi asks, why use the expression Eikev, which normally means "heel" to mean "because" in this context? There are many other words that also translate to 'because' (ex: Ki) that are used more commonly and would be seemingly more appropriate.

Rashi answers that if you keep the mitzvot "She'Adam Dash B'Eikev," that a person steps on with his heel, meaning those Mitzvot that are not treated as seriously, then you will benefit from all of Hashem's blessings. The lesson for us is not to minimize any single one of the mitzvot. We shouldn't decide which mitzvot are important and which mitzvot are unimportant. Keeping kosher and keeping Shabbat can seem like fundamental mitzvot, but others such as making Brachot (blessings) right before we eat food, or washing hands before bread, can seem trivial and slip through the cracks since they're every day. Rashi teaches us that the word Eikev is used to teach the importance of every mitzvah and because you keep all of the mitzvot, even those that might seem less significant, then you will benefit from all of Hashem's blessings.

Questions:

1. What does the word Eikev literally mean?
2. How is Eikev translated in the context of this week's Parsha?
3. How does Rashi explain using Eikev to mean "because" in this context?

- Answers:
1. The heel of a foot
2. "Because"
3. Rashi answers that if you keep the mitzvot "She'Adam Dash B'Eikev," that a person steps on with his heel or that are not treated as seriously, you will benefit from all of Hashem's blessings. The lesson for us is not to minimize any mitzvot.

LSS PHOTO DIRECTORY

After a year online, it's good to begin seeing each other again in person. As we look towards more connected days ahead we also look for ways to help encourage the reconnection among members. Adding your photo to your member account is a great way to get to know other Shul members, and let them get to know you (especially if you're "supposed to know them at this point" shhhh - we won't tell). Be sure to send in your individual, couple, or family photo to Jay Ziffer at Jayz@lss.org. *Photos can only be seen by members.

HIGH HOLIDAYS

PRE-HIGH HOLIDAYS CEMETERY VISITS WITH LSS & PLAZA JEWISH COMMUNITY CHAPEL

It is customary to visit the graves of loved ones before Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, but many New Yorkers are unable to get to the cemetery easily. LSS, in partnership with Plaza Jewish Community Chapel, would like to offer comfortable and accessible transportation to visit the graves of loved ones, accompanied by LSS clergy. If you are interested in visiting the grave of a loved one before the High Holidays please fill out this form by Tuesday, August 3rd: (Link in online Echod).

Please note that no cemetery is guaranteed, but filling out this form will allow us to see which cemeteries people are interested in visiting. Once we have confirmed which cemeteries we will visit we will send out an official sign up. Cost: Members $10, Non Members: $15.

Questions or concerns? Please reach out to Rabbanit Mindy Schwartz Zolty at rabbanit@lss.org.
