YOUTH DVAR TORAH By: Avraham Sanger

Subsequent to the prohibitions of owning measuring utensils that enable dishonest business practices the Torah writes "For it is abominable to Hashem your G-d, anyone who does any- kol- of these actions, any- kol- one who perpetrates false actions" Sefer Devarim 25:16). Why does the Torah write "kol"- any- twice?

The Ohr HaChaim explains as follows. The first "kol" refers to the specific items mentioned in the Torah- maintaining separate stones for weighing produce on scales and utensils to measure flour (=purchasing with a large measure, selling with a small one). Cheating suppliers and customers with a rigged measurement system is abominable. A person may claim that only the specific actions are forbidden- a unique decree- Gezarat HaKatuv. Perhaps dishonest forms of commerce not mentioned in the Torah are permitted, or at the very least are not classified as an abomination? To negate this claim the Torah writes that ANY similar act of dishonesty is abominable as well.

QUESTIONS

1. How many mitzvot are covered in this week's Parsha?
2. Who attacked the Jewish people on their way out of Egypt?
3. What are a few examples of the 74 mitzvot covered in this week's Parsha?

1. 74 mitzvot
2. Amalek
3. Employment rights, returning lost objects, and the rules of war.

ANSWERS

DVAR TORAH

Ki Teitzei

By Mordechai Beilis

September 9-10 2022

"Remember what Amalek did to you on the way when you were leaving Egypt. that he happened upon you on the way, and he struck those of you who were hindmost, all the weaklings, at your rear, when you were faint and exhausted, and he did not fear Elokim."

It is interesting that G-d uses the euphemism "that he happened upon you," rather than describing what actually happened – a premeditated, cowardly attack upon B'nai Yisrael, from the rear.

The Rabbis describe this attack on B'nai Yisrael as sticking one's foot in scalding hot water. Even though Amalek lost the war, they cooled the water, so to speak, for future Antisemitism.

Hashem uses His name of Justice in describing the Amalekites not fearing him. Could Hashem have protected us differently. Could he have thwarted their attack as he did when Balaam tried to curse us?

When it comes to spiritual attacks on us, Hashem is there to stop the curse even if we don't know it is being done. But when it comes to physical attacks, Hashem does not seem to stop our enemies.

I will give several examples: When we left Egypt, Hashem took us on a safe route because if we'd been threatened with a war, we were not prepared to fight and would have gone back to Egypt on our own. And although Balaam could not curse us, he gave Balak the secret to turn B'nai Yisrael against Hashem. Hashem did not take any steps to stop this. It took Pinchas to end the plague with a physical action.

Let's us move to my father's generation. When the Nazis (their names should be erased) came to power, Hashem did not step in and stop the Holocaust. It took a war. Many people who went through the Holocaust and survived asked, where was Hashem? Why didn't He stop the genocide?

In explaining why there had to be a Holocaust, people give many reasons. One is that it led to our receiving the land of Israel. Another is that it happened because too many of us were not observant. These are not good reasons, but we don't know the reason. Maybe we'll find the answer later, but for now we don't understand any of it.

In both the Six-Day War and in the Yom Kippur war, a war had to be fought. Even if we had received intelligence about the attack, these wars still had to happen. Maybe other wars were thwarted by Hashem, but again, we don't know. Many soldiers have claimed that there were miracles that they witnessed in these wars. One claim was that as the Israeli tank brigade was running to chase the Egyptians, they saw the battle in heaven playing out. If this is true, then certainly Hashem is there to fight our battles, but still, a battle must be waged.

So, when Amalek attacks us, and a battle must be waged, Hashem will be there. When Moses' hands are raised, we are winning. When his arms grow weary, we are not winning.

Hashem commands us: "you shall wipe out the memory of Amalek from under the heaven – you shall never forget!" As we enter the Yomim Noraim, may Hashem Elokim grant us good health and the protection that we need from our enemies.

Shabbat Shalom

KOL NIDRE APPEAL

As the High Holidays approach we call upon our community to contribute to the HH appeal with a sense of optimism, continuity, and generosity. We hope our shul, which is an integral part of our shared legacy, to us and to our children, inspires you to show your support and dedication at this important time. Funds for brick and mortar, for day to day function, and perennial programming are all needed to maintain the beauty and vibrancy of our shul. Be generous, and many thanks in advance. Please see online Echod to donate.

HIGH HOLIDAY Q&A

Executive Director, Tamar Fix fills us in on her favorite parts of the High Holidays.

The Chagim were always a special time in my home. The scents of delicious cooking wafting throughout my home, the Erev Yom Tov kitchen tastings, the table always set beautifully for family and friends, library books stacked and patiently waiting for me to dive into them, my mother quietly standing in silent prayer beside the candles with her eyes covered, my friends and I going back and forth from home to shul and back again, sitting with my mother in shul, walking home together as a family board games were played, sunflower seeds cracking and laughing, talking, and sharing while we enjoyed desserts. At night, after a late night meal at a neighborhood friend's, my brother, without question, carrying me home on his shoulders. The unplugging from the hustle and bustle of our daily lives created the amazing backdrop so that all of these beautiful memories could exist. I have tremendous gratitude to my parents for fostering these core memories.

Later on, my understanding of the holidays deepened and I spent hours learning and listening to information that could help me harness the power of this special time.

Today, at LSS, what fuels me are the stories. The stories I hear from members about how and why Lincoln Square became a meaningful part of their lives. It's with these stories, echoing in the background of my mind, that I proudly participate in creating an atmosphere that draws and connects both old and new members to Lincoln Square Synagogue.

MORE WELCOMES!

WELCOME NEW UWS SCHLICHAN GALI RABIN

Gali Rabin is the newest UWS 'Schlichah' (Emissary of the Jewish Agency for Israel, aka The Sochnut). Gali was born in Kibbutz Yakum in central Israel. Gali has a Bachelor's degree in International Relations and Islamic and Middle Eastern Studies from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and an MBA in Social Leadership from the joint program of the Mandel Foundation in Israel and Ben-Gurion University of the Negev. She also holds a facilitator certificate from "Gesher" and the Magid Institute to promote dialogue between different factions of Israeli society. Gali is looking forward to working together with the UWS communities - including LSS - to create more meaningful connections to Israel, through dialogue, discourse, and actions. She is thrilled to be on the Upper West Side with her husband, Tomer, and couldn't be happier in her role as the new Shlichah in the community! If you'd like to reach out to Gali and welcome her to the community, you can reach her at GaliR@jafi.org

WELCOME TO OUR NEW RECEPTIONIST: RICKY LEBOWITZ

Ricky graduated from CUNY Queens College in 2022 with a B.A. in Psychology and a minor in Media Communications. Growing up in different Jewish communities has made her passionate about embracing diversity within the Jewish culture and bringing people together. She enjoys fostering a positive environment at Lincoln Square Synagogue in which members can celebrate their Jewish heritage. During her leisure time Ricky likes hiking, cooking, fashion, and art.

You can reach her at ricky@lss.org or by calling 212-874-6100 ext. 104.
