Note about Your High Holiday tickets:

In an effort to save resources, we are emailing out High Holiday Seat Assignments rather than snail mail. Please print out, or write down your seat assignments that were emailed to you. However, if you should forget or be unable to do that, the ushers will have a copy of all Attendees. We are sending the seat assignments by snail mail only to those who do not have an email address on record in our database.

Tashlich

The location where our shul members usually recite Tashlich is at the Hudson River edge near 72nd street. The walking directions to get to the River is as follows: Head west down 72nd street towards Riverside Drive. Follow the street to go below the West Side Highway, follow path in to Riverside Park behind the Statue of Eleanor Roosevelt. The path will take you to the edge of the River.

There will be a Youth Tashlich on Thursday, September 5th, leaving from in front of LSS at 4:30pm.

The Shofar

If you know of someone who is unable to make it to shul during the High Holidays to fulfill the mitzvah of hearing the shofar, please send an email to Rabbi Robinson at Rabbi@lss.org to make arrangements.

Please check out our High Holiday Web page at <http://www.lss.org/high-holidays.html> for all High Holiday Related Information at LSS.

LSS Security Update - August 31, 2013

The LSS Security Committee continues to prepare and train for the unexpected.

Harvey Stein, LSS's head of security attended this week's NYPD annual High Holiday security briefing at One Police Plaza. He was able to make personal connections with key NYPD counterterrorism leaders. Commissioner Raymond Kelly announced that there will be increased foot patrols and counterterrorism teams around the city. Some synagogues will receive unannounced visits from the NYPD's Hercules units. You've seen them outside LSS many times - dressed in black with K-9 dogs and heavily armed with automatic weapons.

Our shul's Local Synagogue Volunteers (LSVs) continue to be trained and re-trained and completed an additional training this week.

Isn't it time you joined the committee by taking either the LSV or Cadet course given by CSS? Contact Harvey Stein at security@lss.org

If you see something, say something. Act as if your life depended on it, because it does.

LSS Museum Tours Kickoff

When: Sunday September 15, 10:30 AM.

Where: Museum at Temple Emanuel, 5th Avenue and 65th Street

What: Writing on the Wall: Early Modern Broadside From the Valmadonna Trust Library, the finest private library of manuscripts in the world.

Private guided docent tour. Free admission but space is limited, reservations are mandatory. See flyers in the LSS lobby.

Even if you saw the complete Valmadonna Trust Library exhibit at Sotheby's you don't want to miss this concentrated view of the mosaic of Jewish daily life. These printed notices from Europe, India and Jerusalem grant us insight into the lives of Jews across continents and over four centuries.

Flyers available in the lobby.

The LSS Book Club

The LSS Book Club looks forward to another season of intense book discussion starting with the award winning book The Innocents by Francesca Segal. It is based on a plot from the well known novel The House of Mirth by Edith Wharton but OUR book takes place in an insular Jewish Community in London. Since the community serves as a character in the book, Rabbi Robinson and Sarah Robinson will lead the discussion.
