Talleisim for Burial—Jewish men are generally buried in a tallit. There is currently a campaign by the Hebrew Free Burial Association to collect talleisim for the burial of Jews whose talleisim can't be located or did not have their own. The HFBA arranges respectful levayaot and burials for Jews whose families can't afford to do so. There is a bin in front of 1136 Korfitsen Road, New Milford, where talleisim can be dropped off. Here is a video that demonstrates what they are facing with Covid-19: <https://youtu.be/cRw63XDcyMs>.
