Sunday, November 26th, 8:15pm—Congregation Bnai Yeshurun's Adult Education Committee and NORPAC present Ambassador Michael Oren; The Gaza War: Causes, Course, and Possible Outcomes, from one of the most knowledgeable and experienced observers of Israel's history. Located at 641 West Englewood Avenue, Teaneck, NJ.

Michael Oren has had a long and distinguished career as statesman, historian, soldier and author.

Born in New York and educated at Princeton and Columbia, he holds four degrees in Middle East history and has received four honorary doctorates.

Dr. Oren moved to Israel in the 1970s and joined the IDF. He fought in the 1982 Lebanon War, and later served as an army spokesman in the Second Lebanon War and several Gaza operations.

In 2009, Michael Oren was appointed Israel's ambassador to the United States in which capacity he dealt with crucial strategic issues such as the Iron Dome defense system and the Iran nuclear threat. He received the Statesman of the Year Medal from the Washington Institute for Near East Policy and the Dr. Martin Luther King Legacy Prize for International Service. He was elected to the Knesset where he headed a classified committee on international affairs and served as Deputy Minister in the Prime Minister's Office. Politico named him as one of the fifty most influential thinkers in America, and the Jerusalem Post as one of the ten most influential Jews worldwide.

Oren has had his essays and op-eds published in The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, and Atlantic. He has written numerous books. His last three works of non-fiction were all New York Times bestsellers. He is currently working on the history of Israel's War of Independence, to be published by Random House.
