A MESSAGE FROM RABBI STRAUCHLERREDEMPTION: THEN, NOW AND FOREVER

With every year, we experience Parshat Hashavua with new eyes. As we read of kriyat yam suf (and hear the words derech eretz plishtim) during a time of war, this is especially true.

Brachot 12a speaks of the prayer with which we start and end each day:

Rabba bar Hinnana Sava said in the name of Rav: One who did not recite: True and Firm

[emet veyatziv] at the beginning of the blessing of redemption that follows Shema in the morning prayer, and: True and Trustworthy [emet ve'emuna] in the evening prayer, did not fulfill his obligation. An allusion to the difference in formulation between morning and evening is, as it is stated: "To declare Your kindness in the morning and Your faith in the nights" (Psalms 92:3). In the morning, one must mention Hashem's loving-kindness, while in the evening one is required to emphasize the aspect of faith.

In explaining how we declare God's kindness each morning, Rashi explains, "The blessing True and Firm [emet veyatziv] relates entirely to the kindness that [Hashem] performed for our ancestors: he took them from Egypt; he split the sea for them; he allowed them to cross it. The blessing True and Trustworthy [emet ve'emuna] speaks about the future in that we anticipate how Hashem will fulfill his promise to redeem us..."

We are forever upon the banks of the Red Sea reflecting upon how Hashem saved and saves us. We begin every day appreciating Hashem's kindness; we engage in perpetual praise of Hashem for perpetual redemption; and we pray for the ongoing achievement of that redemption every evening, as we look to the future. We orient every morning and evening's requests of Hashem along this paradigm, immediately before we take three steps forward in our tefillot.

We daven for redemption past, present and future as we turn to HaShem during this difficult time for am yisrael. May we merit to soon experience our emuna's ultimate destination in the geula sheleima.
