Our uniforms come from Land's End which has a lifetime guarantee, period. If something wears out, you can send it back. Frequent sales and discounts make it economical to purchase, and we are beginning an in-school clothing exchange where parents can swap items they no longer need. Use eBates and ShopYourWay rewards to save even more.

About eBates: eBates is a website that provides cash back when you shop online. Visit ebates.com to sign up. Then, before you shop, go to their site and search for the store you want to shop (e.g. Land's End.) When you click through to the site, it will track you and you will receive a percentage back as part of eBates's program. It doesn't cost anything and signing up is quick and easy. <http://www.ebates.com>
