May their souls be bound in the everlasting bond of life.
Significance of Yizkor - The Memorial Prayer

Yizkor, a special memorial prayer for the departed, is recited in the synagogue four times a year, on Yom Kippur (October 9), Shmini Atzeres (October 21), last day of Pesach (April 16) and second day of Shavuos (May 30).

Yizkor in Hebrew means “Remember.” It is not only the first word of the prayer; it also represents its overall theme. In this prayer, we implore G-d to remember the souls of our relatives and friends who have passed on. One may recite Yizkor for any Jew who has passed on. When we recite Yizkor, we renew and strengthen the connection between ourselves and our loved ones, bringing merit to the departed souls, elevating them in their celestial homes.

The main component of Yizkor is our private pledge to give charity following the holiday in honor of the deceased. By giving charity, we are performing a positive physical deed in this world, something that the departed can no longer do. The soul gains additional merit if the memory of its good deeds spurs ones loved ones to improve their ways. This is especially significant in connection with the Yizkor of Yom Kippur, when the living and the dead are visited by the Judge of All Worlds, and atonement is sought by the living for themselves as well as for departed generations.

Although both Yizkor and El Malei Rachamim are intended to be recited in the synagogue with a minyan, if one finds himself or herself away from a synagogue, he or she may recite these prayers without a minyan. Perhaps it was realized that there are numerous Jews who, for one reason or another, age or sickness or the like, cannot make it to Shul, and that it would be unfair to preclude them from reciting Yizkor for their loved ones.

It is traditional to recite verses at the beginning of the Yizkor service that are not, strictly speaking, part of the service, but that reflect the spirit of Yizkor: that is, our awareness of the fragility and mortality of human beings and our complete dependence upon G-d in all aspects of life.

Our Father, Our G-d, the Lord of all spirit and flesh, grant proper rest on the wings of Your sheltering Presence—among the lofty, holy, and pure, radiant as the shining firmament, for the souls of the Six Million Kedoshim. Men, women, and children who were murdered, incinerated, butchered, and strangled by the hoards of our oppressors in the European exile. They were all holy and pure, among them righteous men, the tall cedars of Israel, lovers of the Torah. May their final rest be in the Garden of Eden; may the Master of Compassion bind their souls in the bond of everlasting life; G-d is their portion. O G-d, remember for us their sacrifice; and allow this sacrifice to act as a merit for us, and for all Israel. Let the land not hide their blood, and let there not be a place that can contain their cries. In their merit the dispersed of Israel shall return to their portion. The holy ones are forever remembered; their righteousness forever remains opposite our eyes; may they find peace and rest peacefully, and we say: Amen.
Prayer in Memory of Members of the Israel Defense Force

May G-d remember the souls of the fighters of the Israel Defense Force who gave their lives for the sanctification of the Name, the People, and the Land; who died a heroic death in missions of liberation, defense, and security. They were quicker than eagles, and stronger than lions, as they volunteered to assist the people and with their pure blood soaked the clods of our holy earth. The memory of their self-sacrifice and heroic deeds will never perish from us. May their souls be bound in the Bond of Life with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and with the souls of the other Jewish heroes and martyrs who are in the Garden of Eden. Amen.
Hashem, what is man that You recognize him?
The son of a frail human that You reckon with him?
Man is like a breath, his days are like a passing shadow.
In the morning it blossoms and is rejuvenated, by evening it is cut down and brittle.
According to the count of our days, so may You teach us;
then we shall acquire a heart of wisdom.

Safeguard the perfect and watch the upright, for the destiny of that man is peace
But G-d will redeem my soul from the grip of the Lower World, for he will take me, Selah!
My flesh and my heart yearn—Rock of my heart, and my portion is G-d, forever.
Thus the dust returns to the ground as it was, and the spirit returns to G-d who gave it.

Psalm 23
A psalm of David:
Hashem is my shepherd, I shall not lack. In lush meadow He lays me down, beside the tranquil waters He leads me. He restores my soul. He leads me on the paths of righteousness for His Name’s sake. Though I walk in the valley overshadowed by death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me. Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in full view of my tormentors. You anointed my head with oil, my cup overflows. May only goodness and kindness pursue me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the House of Hashem for long days.
In Memory of the Father

May G-d remember the soul of my father, my teacher (name of the deceased and that of his father) who has gone to his world, because I will give charity on his behalf. In reward for this, may his soul be bound in the Bond of Life, with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah, and with the other righteous men and women in the Garden of Eden. And let us say: Amen.

In Memory of the Mother

May G-d remember the soul of my mother, my teacher (name of the deceased and that of her father) who has gone to her world, because I will give charity on her behalf. In reward for this, may her soul be bound in the Bond of Life, with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah, and with the other righteous men and women in the Garden of Eden. And let us say: Amen.

Name of the deceased and that of his father

Name of the deceased and that of her father
For a Male Relative

wife son brother uncle grandfather
(name of the deceased)

May G-d remember the soul of my husband/wife/son/daughter/brother/sister/aunt/grandmother/grandfather (name of the deceased) who has gone to his/her world, because I will give charity on his/her behalf. In reward for this, may his/her soul be bound in the Bond of Life, with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah, and with the other righteous men and women in the Garden of Eden. And let us say: Amen.

In Memory of Departed Relatives in General

wife daughter sister aunt grandmother
(name of the deceased and that of his/her father)

May G-d remember the soul of my father and my mother, my grandfathers and grandmothers, my uncles and aunts, my sons and daughters, my brothers and sisters, whether paternal or maternal, who are gone to their repose; for that I now solemnly offer charity for their sake; in reward of this, may their souls enjoy eternal life, with the souls of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah, and all the righteous who are in Gan-Eden, and let us say, Amen.

G-d, filled with mercy, Who dwells on high, grant a perfect rest on the wings of Your sheltering Presence—among the lofty, holy and pure, radiant as the shining firmament for the soul of (name of the deceased) who went to his/her world because without making a vow I will give to charity in remembrance of his/her soul. May his/her resting place be in the Garden of Eden. Therefore, may the Master of Mercy, shelter him/her in the shelter of His wings forever; and may He bind up his/her soul in the Bond of Life. G-d is his/her inheritance. May he/she rest securely in Peace, and we say: Amen.

The Suburban Orthodox Congregation owns and operates a four-acre memorial park located in Rosedale providing an eternal resting place of beauty and dignity.

Your foresight in making arrangements for your family’s final resting place will relieve your loved ones of this burden while creating a treasured family memorial for future generations.

For more information, call Ken Creeger, Cemetery Chairman or the Shul office, 410.484.6114.

Legacy Giving

There is no greater way to honor a lifetime of spiritual growth and to elevate the soul for eternity, than to ensure the continued commitment to the values that SOTC upholds.

Join with us through the loving act of planned giving by leading your community to a strong and vibrant future. Leaving a bequest is a meaningful way to allow your beloved Kehillah to continue to flourish for years to come.

For more information, contact the Shul office, 410.484.6114 or office@suburbanorthodox.org.
