ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Young Israel of Fort Lee is excited to be partnering with Jewish National Fund-USA as well as other shuls and institutions in our area and across the country to recognize Jewish Disabilities Awareness, Acceptance, and Inclusion Month. You are invited to join us virtually on Monday, January 31st at 8pm for a special event highlighting how people with disabilities and special needs are integrated into all aspects of daily life and tightly woven into the fabric of Israeli culture. It will feature Academy Award-Winning Actress Marlee Matlin, Actress, Singer, and Songwriter Rebecca Pidgeon, and hosted by Playwright, Filmmaker, and Author David Mamet. Please check the shul emails for the registration link. The event is free to attend, but for security purposes for the zoom link, you must formally register.

Sisterhood

Dear Sisterhood,

It is hard to believe that we will be entering into both the month February and Adar I during the coming week! Even though the cold weather in Fort Lee seems just as cold!!! We hope those of you in Florida are enjoying the warmth.

Speaking of members in Florida, cold weather, and Covid...oh, I didn't mention Covid yet? Well, it hardly needs to be mentioned, we hear of it all the time, everywhere! We have decided to postpone the Israeli Dance event originally planned for February. Why? You may ask. Well, I just told you....we are concerned that the level of Covid may be too high still. Also, it has been so cold here, it is hard to predict what the temperature will be on any given day. If it is -10 degrees or a huge storm hits on the day of the event, we doubt very many ladies will show up. Finally, we thought it would be better to have this particular event after Pesach, when more of us are back in Fort Lee. So many of you seemed excited and interested in participating in this dancing event, we wanted to have it when most of you could attend. So what will replace Israeli Dancing in February? We are planning an excellent Zoom presentation. It is on an interesting topic, which we hope many of you know little about. We'll let you know more about it next week when we have concluded the arrangements.

Our new YIFL Friendship Connection, led by Susan Joffe has been busy spreading friendship and happiness, as is its goal! Concerned with not spreading germs, we are still only connecting with people via phone. When health concerns decrease we will begin in person visits. More members are always welcome, both men and women. Call Susan at (201) 429-2373 to join the group and brighten someone else's day.

Judith Reiner has lovely cards for many occasions such as get well, sympathy, or to wish mazal tov. In these days of dashing off emails, it's always appreciated to get a card you can hold in your hand. To purchase them call Judy at (201) 849-5382. You can help a friend and the Sisterhood at the same time.

Shabbat Shalom,
Nora and Deborah
