Important Information for Pesach 5784

Selling Chametz- If you would like to appoint me as your agent to sell your chametz to a non-Jew, please fill out a Power of Attorney form and submit the form to me. I will be available after weekday minyanim and on most afternoons. If those times don't work for you, please contact me via my email (rabbibergmanyiftlee@gmail.com), or my cell (201-957-9349) to arrange a time.

Maos Chittim- There is an ancient custom to collect tzedakah to help indigent families pay for matzos and other Pesach expenses. I will be happy to distribute any funds you donate for Maos Chittim to needy recipients both here and in Eretz Yisrael. You can either send a check to the office or donate at the shul's website. Please make sure to note that the donation is for Maos Chittim. Please send in your donation by Friday, April 19, 2024.

Biur (Burning) Chametz- We plan to burn chametz on Erev Pesach, Monday 4/22/24 from 11:00-11:30 am in the alley between the shul and the Rabbi's house. Please note that no chametz will be accepted after 11:30. Please bring only the chametz found during the bedikah. We can't handle large amounts. All chametz should be wrapped in paper, no aluminum foil or plastic wrapping or bags. If you have any questions, contact Yitz Berger at (917) 697-0043.

Wishing you a Chag Kasher Visameach,

Rabbi Bergman

Please make sure to empty your tallit bag of all Chometz.

The building will be cleaned for Passover as of Tuesday April 16.
Do not bring in any Chometz.

Thank you.

SUPPORTING OUR PEOPLE IN ISRAEL

Global Jewish Assistance & Relief Network: Distributes prepaid electronic Food Cards that Israel's needy families can use in grocery stores across Israel. Their focus during the war is on providing food to soldiers and their needy families.

Contact: Shlomo Steinmitz- shlomo@globaljewish.org

ACHI 613 Shabbat Shalom Cards: Support those affected by the war in Israel by purchasing Shabbat Shalom Cards. Each card represents a Shabbat meal, provided by Lema'an Achai, Israel, for families of active soldiers, evacuees, and their families, and for bereaved families of soldiers and those who lost their lives on October 7. These cards also make great hostess gifts when invited for Shabbat or to commemorate any occasion.

Leket Israel: Provides fresh, healthy food to 250,000 Israelis in need each week. The economic repercussions of the Gaza war have been-and will continue to be- devastating to countless Israelis. This has resulted in massive and unprecedented demand on Leket Israel to provide fresh food and other support Israelis need.

*Ahavas Yisrael: If Not You,
Who? If Now Now, When?

Joan Zlotnick is a retired professor of English at Brooklyn College. While most of her early publications have been scholarly, more recently she has written on the subject of caregiving and grief. These works include a column for Mishpacha Magazine; a novel, Griefwriting (Amazon); and a memoir/self help book, Holding it Together: Surviving Caregiving and Loss (Tfutza). Her latest book is Brick by Brick: Building an Ahavas Yisrael Mindset One Story at a Time (Mosaica), a collection of stories she edited with her daughter-in-law, Grunny Zlotnick.
