From the Rabbi:

Hello & Welcome,

I feel blessed to be going into my second year as the rabbi and spiritual leader of this warm and caring community. From the ways we reach out to and support each other through both trying and joyful times, to the ways we create fun and traditional Shabbat and holiday programs, to the ways in which we gather together socially, I have seen first-hand how people at different stages of life and with diverse interests can find their place in the community at Temple Beth El.

We hold a broad vision of what synagogue life and Jewish community can be, and we create a variety of social, educational and cultural programs to fulfill that vision. Adults gather to play Mah Jong and poker, to cook, bake and create in our kitchen, and leave the building for cross-cultural and educational trips. Our prayer services are lively and spiritual, with a mix of learning, discussion and prayer, where adults find food for the mind and soul and where children are warmly welcome. Through our religious school and early childhood programs (Gan), children learn Hebrew, Jewish history, holidays and culture.

If you're looking for a Jewish community that inspires and nurtures your Jewish life and journey, I believe you've taken an important step towards finding that here. Temple Beth El members share a common purpose in building joyful and meaningful connections to our Jewish heritage and to each other in holy community. We are an egalitarian congregation that celebrates diversity and practices inclusion. "Coming as you are" is part of the fabric of our community.

Feel free to join us at an event or for services, where you're likely to be greeted warmly by myself and others. We like making new friends! In addition, I love meeting people out for coffee or after services to speak more about whatever is on your mind. To schedule or to be in touch with me, send me an email: rabbi@tbede.org.

Fondly,

Rabbi Jacob M. Lieberman

From Our Co-Presidents:

Dear Congregants, New Members, Returning Members, and Prospective Members of Temple Beth El,

We are very excited about the upcoming year. With Rabbi Jacob and the new boards at the helm, we are positive that it will be one of success and growth for our community. With the return of many former members as well as many new ones, we can already feel the renewed energy everywhere on the Temple Beth El campus. It is our sincerest hope that in the coming year we will only see this energy and positivity grow.

We are tirelessly working to have activities and programs that appeal to every age group. With a little help from each and every member we can ensure the success of these activities. We welcome members to choose a way to become involved. This can easily be done by serving on one of our various committees, volunteer in the office, help with fundraisers, make suggestions for new events, etc. It can be a little or a lot; any and all participation is greatly appreciated and welcomed.

Please feel free to contact us at any time.

TEMPLE BETH EL

2018/2019 MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

Welcome to our new members and welcome back to our congregants

Being a member of Temple Beth El offers more than just a place of worship. We are a caring community with the goal of making each and every member feel that they are part of our extended family. From our Sisterhood to our Men's Club and the various committees within our community, we strive to meet every member's needs, whether it be spiritual, educational or social.

Temple Beth El operates under a "Fair Share" Dues Schedule. It is very important to be supportive of our members, but we must also keep the synagogue on sound financial ground. TBE board members have worked hard to consider the needs of the synagogue and to evaluate how to control expenses and the potential impact of the current economy on our immediate and long-term future. The President and Treasurer will be monitoring the suggested levels of contribution during the 2018-2019 membership drive. Honesty and generosity are among the core values of Judaism.

We urge you to evaluate your commitment to Temple Beth El and our continued growth, not only in terms of membership but also in terms of the revenue dollars needed to support our many outstanding programs and activities including our excellent Religious School. Please help us by getting your forms in no later than August 31. If special financial arrangements need to be made, you must contact Trayce Bahar (TBE Treasurer) at 302-235-1449, sportsmama8892@verizon.net or Linda Oster (Co-President) at 302-547-7773 or tooaruba@aol.com. Please contact us if you have any questions.

High Holy Day tickets will be e-mailed to all members who are registered before September 5th. Tickets and checking in at the front door will be required to maintain safety and security.

Please remember that your registration is not official until accepted by either the President or Treasurer and that all outstanding 2017-2018 balances are paid before registration.

It is also important to note that your pledge must be paid in the manner you have indicated on your pledge sheet unless prior arrangements are made with the Treasurer.

There are so many ways to get involved in Sisterhood. We provide Onegs, Kiddush's and catering. Sisterhood has many programs to satisfy a variety of interests, including our biggest fundraiser, Basketfest, which draws people not only from our Temple, but from the broader community. Temple Beth El Cemetery Section

The Montefiore Mutual Benefit Society of Wilmington, DE. part of the Jewish Community Cemetery Association, has designated 200 sites for a Temple Beth El section. Membership applications are available at the synagogue office. Montefiore provides a number of benefits and should be seriously considered. The site adjoins the Lombardi Cemetery which is non-denominational. It may be possible to work out burial arrangements in interfaith marriage cases to accommodate this situation. Questions should be directed to Josh Schoenberg at 302-762-0334.
