Parshah Summary

The sidrah tells of procedures that were to be carried out in the Mishkan, the portable house of worship in the wilderness). God tells Moses to receive from the children of Israel pure olive oil to feed the “everlasting flame” of the seven-branched menorah, which Aaron is to kindle each day, “from evening till morning.”

The priestly garments, to be worn by the kohanim (priests) while serving in the Mishkan are described. All kohanim wore: 1) the ketonet—a full-length linen tunic; 2) michnasayim—linen breeches; 3) mitznefet—a linen turban; 4) avnet—a long sash wound above the waist.

In addition, the Kohen Gadol (high priest) wore: 5) an efod—an apron-like garment made of blue, purple and red-dyed wool, linen and gold thread; 6) a choshen—a breastplate containing twelve precious stones inscribed with the names of the twelve tribes of Israel; 7) a me’il—a cloak of blue wool, with gold bells and decorative pomegranates on its hem; 8) a tzitz—a golden plate worn on the forehead, bearing the inscription “Holy to God.”

Tetzaveh also includes God’s detailed instructions for the seven-day initiation of Aaron and his four sons—Nadav, Avihu, Elazar and Itamar—into the priesthood, and for the making of the golden altar, on which the ketoret (incense) was burned.

In Today’s Haftarah

In this week's haftarah, the prophet Ezekiel describes a vision of the altar that will be built for the third Holy Temple and its dedication ceremony. The theme link between the haftarah and the sidrah is the building of Israel’s Sanctuary in the wilderness after the Exodus from Egypt, and the rebuilding of Israel’s Temple in Jerusalem when they will have returned from the Babylonian exile.

Shortly after the destruction of the first Temple, Ezekiel experienced a vision of the third Holy Temple that will be built by the Messiah. God tells Ezekiel to recount to the Jewish people this vision, and this hopefully will bring them to be ashamed of the deeds they did that caused the destruction of the Temple. "And if they are ashamed of all that they have done, let them know the form of the House and its scheme, its exits and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its laws and all its teachings..."

Ezekiel then goes on to describe in detail the third Temple's altar, and also describes its seven-day inauguration ceremony and the offerings which will be brought on each day of that special week.
