High Holy Days at BMH-BJ 5781

Friends,

A synagogue is a house of assembly and a house of learning, but first and foremost it is a beit tefilah – a house of prayer. BMH-BJ is certainly each of those things, offering religious, cultural and social programs, communal events, Torah learning opportunities and of course, daily morning and evening minyan, and shabbat and yom tov services throughout the year. With a beautiful chapel that seats 160 and a magnificent sanctuary that can seat more than 1000, it is primarily when all our seats are filled by all of our members, that we become a house of prayer on the grandest scale. Our tradition says, B'rov am hadrat melekh – in the midst of a multitude God is truly glorified.

But what are we to do this year? Large crowds simply cannot gather. How can we make the High Holy Days meaningful to you in this most challenging year? What we are trying to do is reach all of you, even if you cannot reach us. From on line pre-High Holy Day classes, to a special zoom concert of traditional and contemporary spiritual music, to in person services on the High Holy Days themselves which will be streamed, to an outdoor, Shofar and Tashlikh experience, and more. We know that many of you will not be able to be with us physically, but we want to be with all of YOU spiritually. We hope you will find ways to connect with us and with God. God loves you. And so do all of us here at BMH-BJ.

תכלה שנה וקללותיה - תחל שנה וברכותיה

Let the old year, and all its curses, end; let a new year, filled with promise and blessing, begin.

Rabbi Chaitovsky
