Parshah Summaries

Seventh Day Torah Reading: Exodus 13:17-15:26

The Torah reading describes Israel's experiences following the exodus. Pharaoh mobilizes the Egyptian army and begins his pursuit of the fleeing Israelites. When Moses and the children of Israel reach the Red Sea, Moses raises his rod, the waters split apart, and the Israelites are miraculously saved. When the Egyptians reach the water, they become bogged down, sink to the bottom, and drown. Moses and the children of Israel sing a magnificent song of thanksgiving.

Eighth Day Torah Reading: Deuteronomy 14:22-16:17

The Torah reading for the eighth day of Passover deals with a variety of agricultural and economic laws, as well as a comprehensive description of the three pilgrimage festivals.

Haftarah Summaries

Seventh Day Haftarah: II Samuel 22:1-51

The Haftarah connects to the theme of thanksgiving in the Torah reading. In the Haftarah, King David composes his own song of thanksgiving to God for all of his victories and deliverances from the enemy. The Haftarah concludes with this sentence, which is also included at the conclusion of the grace after meals, "A tower of salvation of His king, who shows mercy to His anointed, to David and to his heirs forever."

Eighth Day Haftarah: Isaiah 10:32-12:6

The Haftarah, from the Book of Isaiah, begins with a prediction that Assyria will be defeated. This prophecy comes true. The Haftarah continues with Isaiah's message of hope that the Israelites will again be gathered together from lands of exile and return to Israel.

The Haftarah also contains the famous great vision of the Messianic Era when peace and harmony will reign supreme among all people. Because the Haftarah contains several allusions to the redemption from Egypt, it was especially chosen to be chanted on the last day of Passover.
