BMH BJ SCRIBE

Where Judaism is embraced and all are welcome

SPRING 2021

BMH-BJ is a unique, independent congregation serving a diverse membership. We are united by our love for each other, a respect for all Jews, support for Israel, and commitment to traditional Jewish values and authentic Jewish living. Our community includes a vibrant morning and evening service every day of the year with a mechitzah, a family seating experience on Shabbat and Holy Day mornings, a dynamic and award winning growing preschool program. A highly innovative religious school where parents learn along with their children, and a variety of daily and weekly Torah and adult education classes and programs for lifelong learners. Our calendar is filled with a wide variety religious, cultural, and social events and activities created to meet the needs of people of every age.

We welcome all who want to connect, engage and journey with us at BMH-BJ. We aim to create a safe, inclusive community for all who enter our doors. Whether you are Jewish by birth or by choice, new to halachic observance or born into it, married, single, divorced or widowed, gay or straight, old or young, fluent in Hebrew or the slowest reader on the planet – all are invited to join with us in prayer, Torah study, tikkun olam, support for Israel and the sacred work of being a Jew.

We are an historic synagogue with a rich past and a bright future. Beth HaMedrosh Hagodol (BMH) was founded in 1897 while Beth Joseph (BJ) was founded in 1922 and merged together in 1996 creating the BMH-BJ we know and love today. Our community shares in an immense love of learning and growth, God and mitzvot, compassion and justice. To become part of our BMH-BJ community is to place yourself in a synagogue whose history stretches back more than 123 years and is alive with vibrancy, passion and inclusivity. We invite you to come and experience one of our myriad offerings!

President's Letter:

Shalom Aleichem!

I am honored to be the new president of BMH-BJ. Along with the Board of Directors, Rabbi Chai and Cantor Marty, we have many new ideas and programs. Please check your emails for all the upcoming events.

I want to take this opportunity to thank Jeff Kline for his years of service as president. Jeff has done a remarkable job and I want to acknowledge his service and dedication. He is a true 'mensch' and mentor of mine and I hope our friendship will continue for many, many more years.

About this time of year we learn the following, "Thirty days before Pesach, we start to learn the laws of Pesach". With this, I want to tell you a little about myself. The "learning" part is what describes what I do. For 40 years I have not only read Torah at BMH-BJ but I have also been a teacher of Judaic Studies. When teaching, I always explain to my students that Jewish learning is a lifelong process.

One cannot understand the Ta'nach (Torah/Prophets/Writings) in a few classes. It takes a lifetime to understand. The goal we accepted at Mt. Sinai is to continue to learn and understand what it means to be Jewish. We learn the lessons from the Patriarchs and Matriarchs as well as the teachings of our Rabbi's from the Talmud. These lessons teach us so much and hopefully we learn how to be better people each day.

With that said, we are extremely blessed to have both Rabbi Chaitovsky and Cantor Marty Goldstein, as well as others who offer their expertise in teaching classes. Our Shul has many opportunities for everyone to get online and learn. From Torah study to Kabbalistic teachings, the possibilities are endless. Please go to the site that the Shul offers, bmh-bj.org, and see what class(es) interest you.

With Purim and Pesach coming, we all hope life will start to become 'normal' again and we can celebrate these holidays together as one community. In the meantime, please be safe and stay healthy.

Looking forward to a brighter future at BMH-BJ. I hope to see everyone at Shul very soon.

Jerry Rottenberg, President

Rabbinical Reflection:

You are reading the beautiful Purim and Pesach edition of our Scribe. It was a year ago that the COVID pandemic reared its ugly head and changed our lives forever. Who would have thought that, a year later, we would still be masking, still social distancing, and still worried about where we should go and who we should see? We see a light at the end of the long tunnel with vaccinations becoming more readily available, but still...it sometimes feels like we have not moved all that much in a year. Who would have thought that this year's Purim and Pesach celebrations would be as challenging as last year's?

Much has happened this past year. Fault lines many of us stopped thinking about were exposed. Conversation became confrontation. Thoughtful but unpopular opinions were dismissed and marginalized – together with the people that held them. The fabric of society was unraveling before our eyes.

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., used to refer to “the inescapable network of mutuality.” “Whatever affects one directly,” Dr. King said, “affects all indirectly. I can never be what I ought to be until you are what you ought to be, and you can never be what you ought to be until I am what I ought to be.” The way forward is to understand the deep connection we all have with one another.

No Jewish holy days make this point better than Purim and Pesach. They are worlds apart in so many ways, but the Jewish calendar and Jewish tradition link them together. Shloshim yom lifnei hachag, dorshim et hachag – 30 days before the festival we start preparing for the festival. The moment Purim ends we spring into action preparing for Pesach which arrives just 30 days later. If you wanted to, you could probably do almost all your Pesach shopping the day after Purim because the shelves will already be stocked with Pesach products.

But this is about more than shopping for the right food. Both Purim and Pesach highlight the importance of connecting to the other. Two of the mitzvot of Purim – food packages and contributions to the needy – have us reach out to those we know already as well as to those we don't know, yet. The ubiquitous Pesach seder begins with an invitation to those in need to take a seat at our table. Those practices might seem out of reach this year, again, but the sentiment behind them - this sense of togetherness – must still be our guiding spirit.

In her dramatic poem recited at the inauguration of President Biden, Amanda Gorman said

*We will rebuild, reconcile and recover and every known nook of our nation and every corner called our country,
our people diverse and beautiful will emerge,
battered and beautiful
When day comes we step out of the shade,
aflame and unafraid
The new dawn blooms as we free it
For there is always light,
if only we're brave enough to see it
If only we're brave enough to be it*

We must not only be guided by the sentiments expressed above, we must also commit ourselves to doing our part in making them reality.

Chag Purim Sameach and Chag Pesach Sameach v'Kasher.

Rabbi Yaakov Chaitovsky

Cantor's Corner:

Purim and Pesach are coming, hmm!! Spring must not be far behind. We all need a breath of fresh air and thought to clear our brains from this very strange and difficult year. The amazing thing is that the Jewish People have been facing difficult times for literally thousands of years. Both Purim and Passover teach us that we have faced great danger and possible destruction and have emerged sometimes even stronger than before.

How do we return to normal someday, or is there such a thing as normal? Perhaps, we create our new normal in each generation using the ideals and mitzvot of the Torah. We continue to offer prayer services (davening) almost every evening and all kinds of classes including Rabbi's classes, my Kabbalah classes, Talmud, and even cooking classes online on Zoom. We have numerous pre-recorded videos on our website and on our YouTube channel, including Shabbat Party for our youngest members, a musical Friday evening Kabbalat Shabbat service, as well as a Shabbat morning service.

In many ways, Covid-19 has forced the entire Jewish world to find new ways to engage their congregants and reach out to new prospective members. You would be very surprised how close you can feel to other people without being anywhere near them physically but being connected spiritually and philosophically. It is up to all of us to learn new technology or use what we already know to join the virtual revolution we are experiencing.

So what do you do if all this stuff is a little too much to figure out alone? Please, please, call us or call a friend, we will teach you how to get connected! Don't be shy or ashamed. We want you with us in any way you can. We have in-person services every morning and every Shabbat in our beautiful Sanctuary. Our Sha'arei Simcha minyan meets in the Chapel every Shabbat morning as well. We almost always have room, though advanced sign up is required. Register online or call the office to be put on the list for any service you would like to attend.

As we have learned for centuries, no difficulty can keep the Jewish people down for long. Let's strive to get to our New Normal!! I am looking forward to seeing you, online or in person.

With Love, B'ah-ha-vah,

Cantor Martin Goldstein

Dear Friends,

The Board of Trustees along with the Mount Nebo administrator, park staff and volunteers wish to thank all those who generously donated to our annual fundraiser which is dedicated to our children's section renovation project. If you have not yet donated to this project, it is not too late to do so by sending your contribution to the Mount Nebo office at the address below. The children's section project reflects the value that Mount Nebo is not just a memorial park and cemetery for one or two congregations. It is a community resource. The rich history of the Colorado and Denver Jewish communities is noted on the monuments throughout the grounds. From some of the most noted and famous names in our state and city history to pioneers who were just passing through, Mount Nebo has been and will continue to be a resource to the entire Jewish Community and a place that one can commemorate personal and institutional memory on the park's sacred grounds.

Search of Wealth and Health with Jeanne Abrams

THURS
11
MARCH

1:00 PM

That health migration especially swelled Colorado's Jewish population.

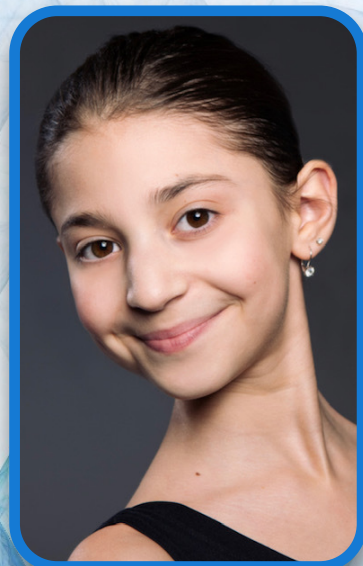

Jews of Capitol Hill presented by Phil Goodstein

22
APRIL

1:00 PM

Join Phil Goodstein as he explores the heyday of the Jews in Capitol Hill. Opposed to the romance of West Colfax Jews, there were the East Colfax Jews. By the beginning of the 20th century, many Jews moved to what was then Denver's foremost neighborhood, Capitol Hill. They brought their institutions with them. Until the middle of the century, the area was the home of Temple Emanuel, the BMH, and the Jewish Community Center. What became Congregation Rodef Shalom started there. Many small Jewish businessmen had shops along Colfax. At one time, successful Jews were especially visible along the Seventh Avenue Parkway corridor. Beginning in the 1950s, most Jews started drifting out of the area to Hilltop and southeast Denver.

Bat Mitzvah of Tamar Moskovich

Tamar Emma Moskovich celebrated her becoming a Bat Mitzvah on Friday evening and Shabbat, February 5-6, 2021. She is the daughter of Yuval and Rachel Moskovich, granddaughter of David and Charlene Engleberg and Yosef and Ariela Moskovich. She is a seventh grader at West Middle School. Tamar began her ballet training at the age of six at Colorado Ballet Academy and has performed with the company in several professional productions at the Ellie Caulkins Opera House. In addition to being an Honor Roll student, Tamar is also interested in acting and singing and has recently started playing tennis. She loves to travel, especially to Israel every summer to visit her paternal grandparents, aunts and uncles, and many cousins, always stopping in London where she was born.

Bar Mitzvah of Yonatan Neustadt

Yonatan Neustadt will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on Shabbat Tazria - Metzora, April 17, 2021. Yonatan will lead shacharit as well as lein both sidrot and the haftarah. He is the son of Rachael Neustadt, brother of Daniel and Meir, and grandson of Roger and Merryl Rapp. Yonatan is in seventh grade at Denver Academy of Torah. He likes chess, math, magic, Minecraft, skiing, and clarinet. He also likes to have fun with his family and friends.

For Yonatan's mitzvah project he created a magic presentation on YouTube to raise funds for healthcare organizations fighting the pandemic: Magen David Adom, Heal Initiative, CARE Global COVID-19 Response. He hopes in this way to contribute to a healthier tomorrow. You can view his video by visiting <https://youtu.be/s9WEI8PJ9YI>.

The family is grateful to school, community, and mentors for this meaningful coming of age.
