Parshah Summary

First Aliya -14 p'sukim - 13:17-14:8

On leaving Egypt, G-d leads the people along a circuitous route to prevent them from panicking and returning to Egypt. A pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire at night escorts the people.

Second Aliya - 6 p'sukim - 14:9-14

When the People see the Egyptian army has been pursuing them, they are frightened because there is no place to flee. They complain to Moshe that it would have been better to have died in Egypt.

Third Aliya - 11 p'sukim - 14:15-25

Having complained to Moshe, G-d asks him why they just don't move along! G-d tells Moshe to raise his hand over the Sea and split it, so the People will be able to pass through it on dry land. The guardian angel (pillar of cloud) leading the People was repositioned between the Israelites and the pursuing Egyptian army.

Fourth Aliya - 32 p'sukim - 14:26-15:26

The Song of the Sea is written in the Torah in a unique manner. Its column is wider and to a special design which highlights pictorially the imagery created by the song. The column starts with the word HABA'IM and is one of only 5 columns that does not begin with the letter VAV.

The Song of the Sea is a direct quote from the People that G-d put into His Torah verbatim. In other words, the rest of the Torah is dictated by G-d, the Song is by the People. It also appears in the daily service.

It is written "he who says the Song of the Sea aloud and with joy, it is as if he was leaving Egypt at that moment - and his sins will be forgiven." This is why we join with the Torah reader as he chants the Song.

The People continue their journey and fail to find water for three days. When they do, they complain bitterly (pun intended) of its taste. G-d directs Moshe to perform a miracle whereby the water is sweetened.

Fifth Aliya - 11 p'sukim - 15:27-16:10

The People travel to Eilim and from there to Midbar Tsin, en route to Sinai. Now they complain about the lack of food. G-d tells Moshe about the daily Manna which He will soon provide. The Manna is both for daily sustenance and a crucial test of faith that the people should have in G-d as a trustworthy provider.

Sixth Aliya - 26 p'sukim - 16:11-36

The account of the Manna continues. Quail miraculously appear in the evening. On the next morning, the Manna - protected by a layer of dew above and below it, appears. The People are fascinated and question Moshe, who explains the divine rules and procedures. Included are the instructions not to "leave our place on the seventh day (to collect the Manna)" on which the mitzva of T'chum Shabbat is based.

Seventh Aliya - 16 p'sukim - 17:1-16

The People journey to Refidim and once again complain about the lack of water. In response, G-d tells Moshe to strike a rock in the presence of the Elders with his miraculous staff. The result is water for the People.

The final nine p'sukim (which constitute the Torah reading for Purim morning) tell of the attack by Amalek on the fledgling nation of Israel. It is the archtypical fight against those who would seek to destroy us. This battle repeats itself - in different forms - throughout Jewish History.

Haftarah Summary

The Haftarah is from the book of Judges (Shoftim) and is set some 110 years after the Exodus. 70 years after the Israelites entered the Promised Land under Joshua's leadership (circa 1150 B.C.E.)

Deborah, a prophetess, judge, and charismatic leader inspires a group of tribes to meet the Canaanites in battle at Mount Tabor. Under General Barak and following her divinely inspired strategy, the Israelites are victorious, this resulting in 40 years of peace with Israel's Canaanite neighbors.

The Haftarah closely mirrors the Torah parshah in a number of significant aspects, including Deborah's song of victory, and is the longest of all Haftarot.
