Parashat Ha'azinu (Ha'azinu — Devarim/Deuteronomy 32; pg 1100)

The greater part of the sidrah of Ha'azinu ("Listen In") consists of a 70-line "song" delivered by Moses to the people of Israel on the last day of his earthly life.

Calling heaven and earth as witnesses, Moses exhorts the people, "Remember the days of old/ Consider the years of many generations/Ask your father, and he will recount it to you/Your elders, and they will tell you" how God "found them in a desert land," made them a people, chose them as His own, and bequeathed them a bountiful land. The song also warns against the pitfalls of plenty—"Yeshurun grew fat and kicked/You have grown fat, thick and rotund/He forsook God who made him/And spurned the Rock of his salvation," and the terrible calamities that would result, which Moses describes as God "hiding His face." Yet in the end, he promises, God will avenge the blood of His servants, and be reconciled with His people and land.

The parshah concludes with God's instruction to Moses to ascend the summit of Mount Nebo, from which he will behold the Promised Land before dying on the mountain. "For you shall see the land opposite you; but you shall not go there, into the land which I give to the children of Israel."

In Today's Haftarah (II Samuel 22:1-41; pg 1205)

This week's haftarah is like Moses' farewell song of the sidrah; this is a song of thanksgiving by David. He expresses his gratitude to God for having delivered him from his enemies. When David was in great danger he prayed to God and his prayer was answered, for God is all powerful and it is He Who rules the world and decides the destinies of men. It is He Who has anointed David and his descendants after him.
