Chol HaMoed Sukkot Torah Reading

In the sidrah God agrees to Moses' request that His presence only dwell amongst the Jews and seals a covenant with Moses. Moses requests to be shown God's glory. God agrees, but Moses is only shown God's "back," not God's "face." God tells Moses to carve new tablets upon which God will engrave the Ten Commandments. Moses takes the new tablets up to Mt. Sinai, where God reveals His glory to Moses while proclaiming His Thirteen Attributes of Mercy.

God informs the Jewish people that He will drive the Canaanites away from before them. He instructs them to destroy all vestiges of idolatry from the land, not to make molten gods, to refrain from making any covenants with its current inhabitants, to sanctify male firstborn humans and cattle and not to cook meat together with milk. The Jews are commanded to observe the Shalosh Regalim or "Three Festivals" -- Pesach, Shavuot and Sukkot "the festival of the ingathering, at the turn of the year." All males are commanded to make pilgrimage to "be seen by God" during these three festivals.

The maftir in Book of Numbers, discusses the public offerings brought in the Temple on this day of Sukkot.

In Today's Haftarah

This week's haftarah is the war of Gog and Magog that will precede the Final Redemption. Its connection to the holiday of Sukkot is that according to tradition the war will take place during the month of Tishrei, the month when the holiday of Sukkot falls. In addition, this war is identical to the one described in the fourteenth chapter of Zachariah, the haftarah read on the first day of Sukkot, which concludes by saying that the gentile survivors of this war will be required to go to Jerusalem every year on the holiday of Sukkot to pay homage to God. The prophet describes Gog's war against Israel and God's furious response. God will send an earthquake, pestilence, great floods and hailstones and fire--utterly destroying Gog's armies.

"And I will reveal Myself in My greatness and in My holiness and will be recognized in the eyes of many nations, and they will know that I am the Lord. . . . I will make known My Holy Name in the midst of My people Israel, and I will no longer cause My Holy Name to be profaned, and the nations will know that I, the Lord, am holy in Israel."

Happenings @ BMH-BJ

Simchat Torah Young Family Celebration — Monday evening, October 21 at 5:30 pm

Rabbi Chaitovsky and Cantor Marty will kick-off Simchat Torah with a FREE child-friendly "Walking tour of the Torah". This fun interactive program will allow children to see the Torah up close, discover their Hebrew name in the Torah and learn about how a Torah is written and put together. Following the walking tour a light dinner will be served. Register at bmh-bj.org/event/simchat-torah-family-celebration

Congregational Simchat Torah — Monday, October 21 at 6:00 pm mincha, 6:20 pm maariv & hakafot

Join us in the Chapel for dancing, Torah reading, hakafot and l'chaims. Everyone is invited.

Women's Hakafot — Monday, October 21 at 7:00 pm

The DAT community has invited all women to participate in women's hakafot in the Gallery.

Simchat Torah — Tuesday, October 22 at 9:15 am We are ending the High Holy Day Season together with a joyful joint Yom Tov service in the Chapel with davening, hakafot and a light kiddush.

TealPink Shabbat — Shabbat, October 26 at 11:30 am

Following Shabbat Services, two breast cancer survivors, Gail Nussbaum and Diane M. Simard, will speak in honor of TealPink Shabbat. Both speakers used their experience with breast cancer as inspiration to make the world better. Gail started the organization Gail Pays It Forward, which provides stuffed bears to kids going through cancer treatment. Diane founded the Center for Oncology Psychology Excellence (COPE) at the University of Denver's Graduate School of Professional Psychology.

Junior Congregation — Shabbat, October 26 at 10:30 am

Joel Rozansky will lead a fun and educational Shabbat morning service for children grades 3-6.

Action Israel, Inside Jihad: How Radical Islam Works — Thursday, November 7 at 7:15 pm

Speaker Dr. Tawfik Hamad is a former Egyptian Islamic terrorist, now turned peaceful Islamic scholar and reformer, advocating for kinder views on Israel. When these teachings endangered his life, he and his family were forced to flee. Dr. Hamid will discuss his experience and ways to defeat terrorism. Due to security issues, you must preregister by signing up online at bmh-bj.org/event/InsideJihad or by calling 303 951 8237. We recommend a donation of $5, students free.

Coco The Movie

Kavod on the Road hosted a program on the Anusim (the connection among the Jews of Spanish and Portuguese descent) which referenced the film Coco and its ties to Judaism. This animated film takes us on Miguel's journey to become a musician like his idol Ernesto de la Cruz despite his family's generations-old ban on music. Desperate to prove his talent, Miguel finds himself in the stunning and colorful Land of the Dead. After meeting a charming trickster named Héctor, the two new friends embark on an extraordinary journey to unlock the real story behind Miguel's family history.
