Parashat Beresheet (Ge. 1-6:8; pg 2)

In the sidrah G-d creates the world in six days. On the first day He makes darkness and light. On the second day He forms the heavens, dividing the “upper waters” from the “lower waters.” On the third day He sets the boundaries of land and sea and calls forth trees and greenery from the earth. On the fourth day He fixes the position of the sun, moon and stars as timekeepers and illuminators of the earth. Fish, birds and reptiles are created on the fifth day; land animals and then the human being on the sixth. G-d ceases work on the seventh day and sanctifies it as a day of rest.

G-d forms the human body from the dust of the earth and blows into his nostrils a “living soul.” Originally Man (Adam) is a single person, but deciding that “it is not good that man be alone,” G-d takes a “side” from the man, forms it into a woman (Chavah) and marries them to each other.

Adam and Eve are placed in the Garden of Eden and commanded not to eat from the “Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil.” The serpent persuades Eve to violate the command and she shares the forbidden fruit with her husband. Because of their sin, it is decreed that man will experience death, returning to the soil from which he was formed and that all gain will come only through struggle and hardship. Man is banished from the Garden.

Eve’s sons, Cain and Abel, came to hate each other. Cain quarrels with Abel, murders him, and becomes a rootless wanderer. The sidrah goes on to tell of the increase of wrongdoing among the descendants of Adam and Eve, through their third son, Seth. The evil of men spreads in the world and G-d’s anger grows, which leads to the disastrous flood in Noah’s time. By that time, Seth’s eighth-generation descendant Noah is the only righteous man in a corrupt world.

In Today’s Haftarah (Isaiah 42:5-21; pg 1130 )

In this week's haftarah, Isaiah brings a message of hope to his fellow Jews exiled to Babylonia after the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 B.C.E. Even as G-d has created heaven and earth at the beginning, so too, will He bring about the redemption of Israel from exile. Israel, as the People of the Covenant, has an important mission to fulfill. It is to be a “witness” testifying to all of the peoples of the world that there is One G-d, Creator of all that is, and to be a “light unto the nations.” It would be a mistake to focus on this moment of exile and assume one is forsaken. G-d will redeem them. They must keep their faith in Him strong.
