Parshah Summary

In the Sidrah, Moses assembles the people of Israel and reiterates to them the commandment to observe the Shabbat. He then conveys God's instructions regarding the making of the Mishkan (Tabernacle). The people donate the required materials in abundance, bringing gold, silver and copper; blue, purple and red-dyed wool; goat hair, spun linen, animal skins, wood, olive oil, herbs and precious stones. Moses has to tell them to stop giving.

A team of wise-hearted artisans make the Mishkan and its furnishings (as detailed in the previous Torah readings of Terumah, Tetzaveh and Ki Tisa): three layers of roof coverings; 48 gold-plated wall panels, and 100 silver foundation sockets; the parochet (veil) that separates between the Sanctuary's two chambers, and the masach (screen) that fronts it; the ark and its cover with the cherubim; the table and its showbread; the seven-branched menorah with its specially prepared oil; the golden altar and the incense burned on it; the anointing oil; the outdoor altar for burnt offerings and all its implements; the hangings, posts and foundation sockets for the courtyard; and the basin and its pedestal, made out of copper mirrors.

In Today's Haftarah

Only once during the 347 years of its existence did the Kingdom of Judah suffer a revolution. Jehoram who was King of Judah from 849 to 842 B.C.E. died and his widow, Athaliah, took over the Judean throne. It was Athaliah, the daughter of Ahab and Jezebel, who prompted Baal worship in Judah. There was much opposition to this cruel queen's idolatrous ways and it led to a Judean revolt against her. Athaliah was removed from the throne by the people and she was succeeded by her grandson, Jehoash. Jehoash cleansed the Temple of all idol forms.

The Haftarah is read on Shabbat Shekalim when we are reminded of the half-shekel given to maintain the ancient Tabernacles of Israel. In the Haftarah we read of Jehoash instructing the Kohanim to gather money for the repair of the Jerusalem Temple.
