Parshah Summary

In the Sidrah, an accounting is made of the gold, silver and copper donated by the people for the making of the Mishkan. Betzalel, Aholiav and their assistants make the eight priestly garments—the apron, breastplate, cloak, crown, hat, tunic, sash and breeches—according to the specifications communicated to Moses in the Parshah of Tetzaveh.

The breastplate worn by the Kohein Gadol (High Priest) had set in it four stones in three rows, twelve in all. Each stone had engraved in it the name of an Israelite tribe. Whenever the Kohein Gadol appeared before God in the Mishkan, he did so as the representative of all the tribes of Israel.

The Mishkan is completed and all its components are brought to Moses, who erects it and anoints it with the holy anointing oil and initiates Aaron and his four sons into the priesthood. A cloud appears over the Mishkan, signifying the Divine Presence that has come to dwell within it.

In Today's Haftarah

This week's Haftarah describes the dedication of Solomon's Temple, following the theme of this week's Torah reading: the dedication of the desert Tabernacle.

The construction of the Beit Hamikdash (Holy Temple) was completed. King Solomon assembled the leaders and elders of the tribes to Jerusalem, and amidst great fanfare, the Levites transported the Ark from its temporary location in the City of David and installed it in the Holy of Holy's chamber in the Beit Hamikdash. Immediately, God's presence appeared in the Temple in the form of a smoky cloud.

King Solomon then blessed God. He recalled the history of the sanctuary, how his father, King David, had wanted to build it—but was told by God that it would be his son who would accomplish this feat. "And the Lord has established His word that He spoke, and I have risen up in the place of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord spoke, and have built a house for the name of the Lord, the God of Israel. And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein (is) the covenant of the Lord, which He made with our fathers, when He brought them out of the land of Egypt."

Mazal Tov!! to Richard Male, who will be presented with the Steve Graham Award for building Non Profit Capacity by the Colorado Nonprofit Association on Friday, March 15. For more than 40 years Richard has been a catalyst for social change and was an early consultant in dozens of organizations including The Jewish Experience, the Kabbalah Experience, Community Resource Center, Community Shares of Colorado and the Colorado Nonprofit Association. His national work includes a role in the passage of the 1990 American Disabilities Act.

Special Announcements

Responsibilities and Challenges—Rabbi Chaitovsky invites all to join him at the Jewish Colorado Israel Series on March 12, 7:00-9:00 pm, when the RMRC will discuss Israel as a Jewish Country with respect to Jewish pluralism. Location: Temple Sinai—3509 S. Glencoe St.

Keshet of the Rockies—grateful for the continued support of the Sandy's Closet thrift store. As the seasons change we are soliciting donations of new or gently worn Spring clothing for men, women and children. We would also welcome volunteers to help with pick ups or in the store with sorting and arranging merchandise. For further information please call Lola Zussman (303)961-4186.

Upcoming Bar Mitzvah—on March 23rd, there will be a wonderful bar mitzvah in the Chotin-Cohen-Gold Sanctuary. To accommodate the family's wishes there will be a mechitzah that day. We look forward to celebrating with everyone.
