Parshah Summary (Sh'lach L'cha — Bamidbar/Numbers 13-15 pg 798)

In the Sidrah, Moses sends twelve spies to the land of Canaan. Forty days later they return, carrying a huge cluster of grapes, a pomegranate and a fig to report on a lush and bountiful land. But ten of the spies warn that the inhabitants of the land are giants and warriors “more powerful than we;” only Caleb and Joshua insist that the land can be conquered, as God has commanded.

The people weep that they'd rather return to Egypt. God decrees that Israel's entry into the Land shall be delayed forty years during which time that entire generation will die out in the desert. A group of remorseful Jews storm the mountain on the border of the land and are met by the Amalekites and Canaanites who blow them a quick and total defeat. It is then that the Israelites realized that G-d's decree is final.

The laws of the menachot (meal, wine and oil offerings) are given, as well as the mitzvah to consecrate a portion of the dough (challah) to G-d when making bread. A man violates the Shabbat by gathering sticks and is put to death. God instructs to place fringes (tzitzit) on the four corners of our garments, so that we should remember to fulfill the mitzvot (divine commandments).

In Today's Haftarah (Joshua 2:1 - 24 pg 1184)

In the Haftarah, Moses's successor, Joshua, led the new generation of Israel into Canaan. In preparation for the conquest of the country, Joshua sent two spies to scout the country and to determine the morale of the Canaanites. The two spies were sheltered in the home of Rahab, a woman of Jericho. If Israel could succeed in taking this strongly fortified city, then the route was open to them into the heart of the country. Rahab assured the two Israelite spies that the people of Jericho and the surrounding country were afraid of Israel's strength and that they would be able to take the country. In return she only asked that her family would be saved when Israel conquered. The spies gave Rahab their word that this would be done. On their return to the Israelite camp the two men assured Joshua that victory was at hand for the people.

The link between the Haftarah and the Sidrah is the theme of the story of the spies in the days of Moses, and in the later period of Joshua.
