Parshah Summary Re'eh Moses continues to address Israel "Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse: the blessing if ye shall hearken unto the commandment of the L-rd your G-d, which I command you this day; and the curse if you shall not hearken..." Once they enter the land, the future of Israel will depend on the people choosing to follow the laws which Moses spells out for them. These include abolishing idol-worship, creating a central Sanctuary, guarding against false prophets, keeping the laws of Holiness, Kashrut, the Sabbatical Year, and the Pilgrimage Festivals in Jerusalem, and the giving of tithes to support the Kohanim, Leviim, and the poor.

Haftarah Summary In the Haftarah, the Prophet Isaiah offers his people in the Babylonian exile a message predicting a wonderful time to come when Israel will be restored to Zion, and it will be a beautiful land with children who bring joy and blessings to their families. Isaiah asks of the exiles a full faith in G-d in return for which they need have no worry about their lives. They will be greatly blessed if they carry out the Covenant between G-d and Israel. The Sidrah opens with the choice presented Israel between right and wrong; and the promise of deliverance from oppression if the Israelites follow paths of righteousness.
