שבת שלום ומבורך!

על הארץ הטבה אשר נתן לך

For the L-rd your G-d is bringing you to a good land. A land with streams of water, springs, and groundwater that emerge in valley and hill. A land of wheat and barley and grapes and figs and pomegranates. A land of oil, olives, and honey. A land where you will not eat bread in poverty, you will lack nothing there, and from whose hills you will mine copper. You will eat and be full, and will bless the L-rd your G-d for the good land He has given you.

Please join us for Kiddush in the Social Hall sponsored by BMH-BJ.

If you wish to sponsor a Kiddush, breakfast, or rent space in the synagogue please call us at 303-388-4203. Please respect the sanctity of our services by refraining from entering or leaving while the ark is open, Mourners Kaddish, Kedusha and Sermon. Please note that our services are cell free zones.

Parshah Summary

Moses continues his farewell talks to Israel, he asks them to remember their past as they begin their future. They would be settling in a land that would offer plenty of water, crops, and fulfill all of their needs — they must remember Who is the Provider of all this. They must not take it for granted or think that it was their own cleverness that obtained all these good things. Without G-d they were helpless and it is He who is responsible for their survival and success. The only thing G-d asks of them in exchange for bounty and blessings is to love and serve Him and live by the commandments which He revealed to them.

Haftarah Summary

Isaiah, bringing a message of consolation and hope to the Jews in their Babylonian exile. Nearly forty years have passed since they had been uprooted from Zi Their hope for return to their land which has been promised by earlier Prophets was not yet fulfilled. Their faith in G-d and His ability to redeem was weakening.

The Prophet, Isaiah, speaks to them in powerful words. G-d has not forgotten His people. He has not deserted them at all. Soon Israel would be restored to glory among the nations. Very soon now, the rulers of other peoples would recognize G-d's support of His people and their greatness as a nation. There is an unbreakable bond between G-d and Israel. It was a bond made long ago with Abraham, their ancestor. It had never been broken even by their exile to a foreign land. It was a bond beyond boundaries. The Sidrah speaks of Israel's relationship with the people of Canaan, and the need to maintain their faith and laws in spite of the idol worshipers among whom they will be living. The Haftarah reassures Israel that the Covenant is still binding between G-d and the people, despite their exile among strangers in Babylonia.
