Parashat Ki Tavo (Ki Tavo — Devarim/Deuteronomy 26-29:8 pg 1068)

In the sidrah, Moses instructs the people of Israel: When you enter the land that G-d is giving to you as your eternal heritage and you settle it and cultivate it, bring the first-ripened fruits (bikkurim) of your orchard to the Holy Temple and declare your gratitude for all that G-d has done for you.

Our parshah also includes the laws of the tithes given to the Levites and to the poor and detailed instructions on how to proclaim the blessings and the curses on Mount Gerizim and Mount Eival—as discussed in the beginning of the parashah of Re'eh. Moses reminds the people that they are G-d's chosen people, and that they, in turn, have chosen G-d.

The latter part of Ki Tavo consists of the Tochachah ("Rebuke"). After listing the blessings with which G-d will reward the people when they follow the laws of the Torah, Moses gives a long, harsh account of the bad things—illness, famine, poverty and exile—that shall befall them if they abandon G-d's commandments.

In Today's Haftarah (Isaiah 60:1-22; pg 1201)

This week's haftarah is the sixth of a series of seven "Haftarot of Consolation." These seven haftarot commence on the Shabbat following Tisha B'Av and continue until Rosh Hashanah.

In glowing terms the Prophet Isaiah recounts to the Babylonian exiles descriptions of what will unfold during the Redemption. Beginning with the resurrection of the dead and the ingathering of the exiles, continuing with the joy and abundance the Jewish people will then experience, as well as the gifts that will be brought to G-d from all of the nations of the world.

Israel shall be restored to Zion and its unhappiness shall be replaced with great joy. No longer will the Jewish nation be persecuted and despised by the powerful nations. There will no longer be violence nor mourning. Instead, there will be peace and decency. G-d will bring His promises to Israel to fulfillment and shine His everlasting light on His people.
