Parashah Summary

God agrees to Moses' request that His presence only dwell amongst the Jews. Moses requests to be shown God's glory. God agrees, but informs Moses that he will only be shown God's "back," not God's "face." God tells Moses to carve new tablets upon which the Ten Commandments will again be engraved. Moses takes the new tablets up to Mt. Sinai, where God reveals His glory to Moses while proclaiming His Thirteen Attributes of Mercy.

God seals a covenant with Moses, assuring him again that His presence will only dwell with the Jews. God informs the Jewish people that He will drive the Canaanites from before them. He instructs them to destroy all vestiges of idolatry from the land, not to make molten gods, to refrain from making any covenants with its current inhabitants, to sanctify male firstborn humans and cattle and not to cook meat together with milk.

The Jews are commanded to observe the three festivals -- including Sukkot, "the festival of the ingathering, at the turn of the year." All males are commanded to make pilgrimage to "be seen by God" during these three festivals.

The maftir, from the Book of Numbers, discusses the public offerings brought in the Temple on this day of Sukkot.

In Today's Haftarah

The subject of the haftarah of this Shabbat is the war of Gog and Magog that will precede the Final Redemption. Its connection to the holiday of Sukkot is that according to tradition the war will take place during the month of Tishrei, the month when the holiday of Sukkot falls. In addition, this war is identical to the one described in the fourteenth chapter of Zachariah, the haftarah read on the first day of Sukkot, which concludes by saying that the gentile survivors of this war will be required to go to Jerusalem every year on the holiday of Sukkot to pay homage to God. The prophet describes Gog's war against Israel and God's furious response. God will send an earthquake, pestilence, great floods and hailstones and fire--utterly destroying Gog's armies.

"And I will reveal Myself in My greatness and in My holiness and will be recognized in the eyes of many nations, and they will know that I am the Lord. . . . I will make known My Holy Name in the midst of My people Israel, and I will no longer cause My Holy Name to be profaned, and the nations will know that I, the Lord, am holy in Israel."

The haftarah concludes by saying that the weaponry of the defeated armies of Gog will provide fuel for fire for seven years! The Jews "shall carry no wood from the fields nor cut down any from the forests, for they shall make fires from the weapons."

Kabbalah & Jewish History

Learn with Cantor Goldstein, Sundays at 10:30 am starting October 7

In this six-week course, Cantor Goldstein will help everyone explore the basics of Kabbalah and how it is woven into the fabric of Jewish history. We will delve into thought-energy and the power of Love, Kindness, and the Sharing aspects of Hashem that has been channeled through the Human Chariots of the sefirot such as Abraham and Moses. No prior knowledge is necessary, just an open mind.

Tell Me More... A comprehensive and enlightening "next step" series of classes by Rabbi Chaitovsky that will build on the Jewish fundamentals you already know, Tuesday evenings 7:15 pm in the Gallery
