

From Rabbi Chaitovsky

Over Pesach, we had many opportunities to sing - at the sedarim, at our tefillot, especially during hallel, at the havdalah ceremony which concluded the chag. Even in isolation, I suspect that the urge to lift our voices in song was strong and commanding. I know it was for me. Whether we were zooming or otherwise enjoying the virtual company of friends, or quietly meditating/davening/reading/thinking, alone, the impact of - and the comfort provided by - music has been undeniable.

Here is a video of a special conversation between a world renowned Rabbi, a popular newscaster and Torah teacher and one of Israel's great singers/songwriters, about the spirituality of song.

I hope you will enjoy it as we transition to Shabbat.

Click here to view the conversation The Spirituality of Song

Wishing you and your a Shabbat shalom.

Warmly,

Rabbi Chaitovsky

Inspiration and Information

Are you SMIZING? Katie Heaney

Counting the \(H\)omer? Armin Rosen

Virtual BMH BJ

The code to enter the Zoom class is:
ID 285-350-9174

Video Password: BMHBJ

Call in Number:

720 707 2699 or 312 626 6799

Call in Password: 498778

Friday 4/17

6 PM Tot Shabbat Party!

6:30 PM Kabbalat Shabbat

Saturday 4/18

8:45 PM Musical Havdalah

Sunday-Thursday

6:05 PM Mincha Maariv Minyan

