

From Rabbi Chaitovsky

Hello everyone and good Erev Shabbat to you! Over the past few years, congregants have approached me and asked what happened to the Parsha videos that I used to send out before Shabbat, each week. My answer always was that we lost our videographer and I was not sufficiently "up" on the ins and outs of producing them.

I am not sure if that last point has actually changed, but I am thinking again of doing those videos. Here is one for this week's Parsha, Emor, that popped onto my computer screen quite unexpectedly and I am happy to share it, again, with everyone. Click here to view the video.

Please take the time to read our TouchPoints today for our many offerings, including a Lag BaOmer "pop-up" concert and sing-along with Cantor Marty on Monday evening at 7.

I am very pleased to tell everyone that starting this coming week, our Zoom Minyan schedule will include a Shacharit Morning Service every Tuesday and Thursday at 8:30 AM. (This will follow Rabbi Fleischmann's 7:30 Daf Yomi class.) Our regular morning minyanners have expressed interest in doing this and I encourage all of you to join.

Stay safe and stay well. Have a wonderful Shabbat!

Rabbi Chaitovsky
