

From Our Rabbi

From all accounts, our first on-site Shabbat Morning services this past Shabbat were an unqualified success. Both services were well attended and it was beautiful to be able to daven together on a Shabbat morning, once again. As I said to those attending, it was truly a "shecheyanu" moment - and we hope to celebrate many more as we move, slowly but surely, forward.

The joy of being together in honor of Shabbat made the various protocols a bit more tolerable than they might otherwise have been. My thanks to everyone for adhering to the guidelines and for continuing to do so going forward. As has been said many times, your health and safety is our primary concern.

God bless each of you.

Rabbi Chaitovsky
