IYAR / SIVAN 5783

From the Bimah

Rabbi Elliot Salo Schoenberg

Dear friends,

I am a morning person and have always been. The best part of my day is waking up to a fresh cup of coffee reading the Boston sports news and the CNN headlines. I study Torah every day in the morning with my second cup of coffee. Cada Dia. However, once a year, my Torah study is in the evening at the Tikkun Leil Shavuot. This study is different because it is not only about mastering the content but the spiritual experience.

We can't sleep because we are so excited that we will be receiving the Torah. The Zohar teaches that God's male and female aspect will unite on Shavuot morning. We are up all night to keep the bride company as she awaits her special moment. In addition, the Mishnah teaches we study Torah late into the night because we are anxious. Why are we anxious? On Shavuot the simple Jew is compared to the High Priest in the Temple on the eve of Yom Kippur, who is anxious that he will get the complex ritual accomplished correctly.

Finally, Rabbi Abraham Ibn Ezra hints at the idea of staying up all night on the night of Shavuot in his commentary to Exodus 19:11: "perhaps a person should not sleep on the night when they will hear God's voice in the morning." The evening is a time of anticipation and excitement, a time of preparation and setting positive intentions.

I look forward to studying with you on the night of May 25th. I will be drinking my third cup of coffee.

With warm wishes,
Rabbi Elliot Schoenberg

CELEBRATING ISRAEL AT 75 IN SONG

To continue Israel's 75th Birthday celebration, the Jewish Choir of Central NJ, Makhelat Hamercaz, will be presenting a gala concert at Neve Shalom. It will take place in our sanctuary on Wednesday, June 7 at 7:30 pm. The program features the thirty voiced choir directed by Cantor Anna West Ott and me. Our accompanist is the amazing Dave Schlossberg and we will feature three outstanding singers as soloists: Cantors Ott and Mark Stanton of Anshe Emeth, and Benjamin T. Berman.

The varied repertoire will connect us with Israel and the pieces are either by Israeli composers or have texts about Israel. These will include classical, pop, reggae, or liturgical, and covers many centuries and countries. Selections will include songs you know such as "Oseh Shalom" by Nurit Hirsch and "Havah Nagila," but with interesting arrangements which raises the level of these songs. A moving prayer for Israel by Cantor Meir Finkelstein and a new setting of the text of "Hatikvah" are uplifting. Beautiful songs by Naomi Shemer, Gil Aldema, and other Israeli composers will be featured. A new setting of the Kaddish prayer by Danny Maseng will be performed. Matisyahu's "One Day," and some joyful selections such as "Hallelujah" from the Eurovision contest of 1979 will be sung.

The choir has been invited to perform at this year's North American Jewish Choral festival and this is an opportunity to hear them here in our synagogue.

You can purchase tickets in Neve Shalom's office, from Hazzan Levin, or by mail at P.O. Box 1256, Highland Park, NJ 08904.

Seniors are $15 per person, General Admission is $20 per seat. Friends ($36), Patrons ($50 per person), Benefactors ($180 for 4), and Angels ($360 for 4) options are also available. There will be a delicious dessert reception following the program and we will be honoring the choir's president, Roz Shaw, who will soon be leaving the community. Jewish Federation in the Heart of NJ, Middlesex County Council of the Arts, and Discover NJ, are sponsors of this program. This is the 20th year of Mercaz bringing Jewish music to Central NJ and beyond and we invite you to be with us in person (or on Zoom) for this very special event.

Religious School Grades Gan – Hebrew High

Let's celebrate the special women in our lives with a lovely

Mother's Day Tea

Ima yekara li, yekara. Shir katan ashira lach, ki ani ohev o'tach!

Mother, you are dear to me. A small song I'll sing for you, that's because I love you!

A wonderful morning awaits mothers or special visitor, and their children at Neve Shalom. We will be decorating and designing our own challah covers for mothers and children to welcome in the Shabbat and chagim/holidays.

The mitzvah to cover challah has been a cherished tradition passed down from generation to generation.

Sunday, May 14 at 10:15am

in The Miller Ballroom.

Pesach may seem far away, but memories of our lovely model seder are here to stay. Today rabah/much thanks to our teaching staff who came in early to help set up our seder. The parents were treated to singing, games, and circle dancing with their children and teachers, as our students exhibited their knowledge about this beautiful chag/holiday.

On Yom HaShoah/Holocaust Remembrance Day, our students in Kita Daled-Hai/4-5th grade read the book The Number on My Grandfather's Arm by David Adler. It is a moving story about a grandfather gently sharing his story with his granddaughter. Our Kita Vav-Zayin/6-7th grade viewed an animated film titled "The Tattooed Torah" by Marvell Ginsburg. This is based on the true story of a child reunited with a Torah scroll from his hometown in Czechoslovakia many years after the war. We also had the honor of meeting, via zoom, one of our teacher's grandmothers who was a survivor. It was a meaningful interactive experience. Afterwards, we lit six yahrzeit candles in remembrance.

Yom Huledet sameach, Israel! Happy 75th birthday to our beautiful Jewish homeland. Our Religious School hosted a gala birthday party. Combined with an Open Day for current and prospective parents, our Israel Fair was a sight to see! Our parking lot was packed with congregants, parents, students, visitors, and of course, a beautiful petting zoo with pony rides. Some of our featured activities were flag making, facepainting, Pin the Tail on the Camel, jewelry making, building the Kotel/Western Wall one stone at a time, sand art, Hebrew Acapella music, delicious Israeli cuisine, and a virtual tour of Israel. A huge hakarat hatov/appreciation, to all our volunteers who helped make this event a great success. A marvelous time was had by all!

As the school year winds down, we will be celebrating Lag B'Omer/the 33rd day in the counting of the Omer. We count 49 days from the second evening of Pesach till Shavuot when the Jewish people became a nation and Hashem/G-d gave us the Torah at Har Sinai/Mountain of Sinai. During Talmudic times, there was a great plague that killed thousands of Jewish students. On Lag B'Omer, the plague ceased. This is why Lag B'Omer is a day of celebration. The Religious School will celebrate with picnicking and a scavenger hunt!

Finally, we will celebrate the special women in our lives, our mothers, at our annual Mother's Day Tea. Happy Mother's Day!

Deadline Extended!

Missed the deadline to submit an ad/ acknowledgement for Martha Mack's Commemorative Ad Journal?

Well, my friends... fear not! We have extended the deadline for submission until May 5th.

SUBMIT YOUR AD TODAY on <http://www.neveshalom.net>! The link to reserve your ad is right up at the top of the homepage.

Martha's myriad of accomplishments and service to Neve Shalom are legendary!

Martha has served our congregation and community for many years as the director of the Neve Shalom Nursery School, and most recently has served on the committee to launch our new Metuchen Preschool at Neve Shalom. Her continuous, and tireless efforts on behalf of our children have resulted in hundreds of young boys and girls growing into amazing young adults!

We are thrilled to honor Martha, and ask you to join us in expressing your good wishes and greetings in this year's Commemorative Ad Journal. By giving generously, you can share your ruach (spirit) with our synagogue community and demonstrate your appreciation for Martha's accomplishments.

In addition, you should have all received an invitation to our honoree luncheon to be held on May 20th at 12:30 pm. Please RSVP to this special catered luncheon by May 5th at honoree@neveshalom.net. It is our hope that you will join us for this very special event to honor Martha and break bread with your friends and fellow congregants.

We look forward to seeing you all there!
