Seudah Shlishit High Holiday Series
September 8 & 15

At Seudah Shlishit during the Yamim Noraim, we will hear insights from community educators:

Rabbi Noam Silverman (9/8)

Rabbi Danny Kroll (9/15)

Shiurim with Rabbi Dr. Gidon Rothstein on Rabbeinu Yonah's Sha'arei Teshuvah

This series will explore Rabbeinu Yonah of Gerona's primary work on repentance, Sha'arei Teshuvah. Each shiur will examine different sections of the first two "Gates of Repentance."

Part I: Pre-Mincha shiur Shabbat September 8- 6:00 PM

Part II: Pre-Mincha shiur Rosh Hashana Day 1, September 10- 5:30 PM

Part III: Pre-Mincha shiur Rosh Hashana Day 2, September 11- 6:15 PM

Part IV: Pre-Mincha Shiur Shabbat Shuva, September 15- 6:00 PM

Part V: Kol Nidrei Night Lecture, September 18- following services

Part VI: Pre-Mincha Shiur/Break on Yom Kippur, September 19- 4:15 PM

High Holiday Shiur with Eitan Cooper

Second day of Rosh Hashana, following Mincha at 7 PM

Using our words: understanding the purpose of a verbal confession

This shiur will transition us from Rosh Hashana to the rest of the Ten Days of Repentance, culminating in Yom Kippur, by exploring the significance of vidui - verbal confession - a central element of repentance and of the liturgy of Selichot and Yom Kippur.

Shabbat Shuva Drasha with Rabbi Shmuel Hain, following 9 AM services Shabbat, September 15 (approximately 10:30 AM)

"I Coulda Been a Contender": on regret's double-edges

This year's Shabbat Shuva Discourse will explore the role of regret (חרטה) in repentance. The drasha will survey models of regret in biblical, rabbinic, and western literature, as well as depictions in popular culture, with special attention to Rambam's singular approach to this most challenging element of teshuvah. Join the YIOZ community for an in-depth and inspirational learning experience.
