

Sisterhood of Congregation Beth Sholom Proudly Presents our Opening Event

Stuart Isacoff

World renowned pianist and author, discusses and enlightens us with his latest book:

When the World Stopped to Listen: Van Cliburn's Cold War Triumph and Its Aftermath

In April of 1958, at the height of the Cold War, a lanky Texan named Van Cliburn, showed up at the first ever Tchaikovsky Piano Competition in Moscow, and captured first prize.

This lecture will reveal behind the scenes aspects of the story, including the daily dramas at the event that remained unreported. Historical video clips will help bring the moment back to life, including rare footage from Nikita Khrushchev's home movies of Cliburn's visits.

When: Monday, October 30, 2017
Time: Dinner 6:30      Lecture 7:30
Cost: Free for paid-up Sisterhood members – dues are $40
Lecture only (includes dessert) - $5
