

B'nai Zion Congregation

"The old shall dream dreams and the youth shall see visions" OCTOBER 2009 / TISHRI 5770

From our Rabbi

All of Israel is Responsible for Each Other

I believe that the High Holy Days encouraged us to feel "re-Jew-venated" and ready to start this new year with a clean slate and unlimited possibilities and potential. The amount of work and preparation that it takes is incredible:

We appreciate our Building and Grounds team for making sure that the lights, sound system, air conditioning, etc. were all functioning well.

We make sure that the building is safe and secure for the "large crowds" that attend and participate. We are grateful to our security team from the Shreveport Police Department, and our Brotherhood ushers for working with them to keep us safe.

We have to prepare the building: clean it up, fix it up, set up chairs and turn a stage into a bimah (pulpit). We are grateful to our custodial staff and lawn service for all of their hard work, before and after the holy days.

We are thankful for our choir, and for the beautiful music that they make to inspire us and help our prayers open the Gates of Prayer. Everyone noticed that they were especially wonderful this year. Some of the musicians are professional, and some are members of our congregation. We really appreciate you.

We appreciate our office helpers for getting mailings out, and handouts ready, and preparing the Memorial Books. It took a special effort to make these things happen since our Office Manager Kerry wound up in the hospital starting at Rosh Hashanah and is now recuperating (it is no fault of hers that this bulletin is late).

We love the Break Fast that the Sisterhood prepares for us each year. It is such a blessing to have food so lovingly prepared and presented when we absolutely need to eat. While we eat, we get to start our year with pleasant visits with the rest of our congregation.

We appreciate the flowers that decorate our bimah and our tables that the Sisterhood and donations provide. When the services are over, the flowers and the food that is left is divvied and brought to people who couldn't be at services, or could benefit from some holiday lagniappe. We can't thank our volunteers enough for all of the time and effort that takes.

We also are grateful to the Sisterhood for making sure that our children are safe and happy during services by providing babysitters.

We are happy to see the variety of worshippers who attend our services. Long-time members and travelers, distant family members, and even non-Jewish friends of our congregation.

We are very thankful that B'nai Zion is all of this and more. It is a place to fulfill spiritual needs and hungry tummies, find friendships and comfort, provide a sanctuary for worship and a sanctuary from the rest of the world. I thank all of you for all you do to make this happen.

Bivrakha,

Rabbi Dr. Jana L. De Benedetti

From our President

When it comes to giving Almost doesn't count

As president, one of my top priorities is the financial well being of B'nai Zion. It is because of our generous contributors that we have made it through this economic recession. We have not yet drawn any money from our Endowment in 2009 and our current end-of-year projection shows that we may only be drawing $16,000 from this safety account. I would like to personally thank all of our members who have raised their Endowment investment to B'nai Zion.

Personally, I would also like to thank our top annual investors to B'nai Zion.

Mr. & Mrs. Aaron Selber
Mr. & Mrs. Don Weiss
Mr. & Mrs. Jeffery Kallenberg
Mr. & Mrs. Gregory Kallenberg
Mr. & Mrs. Sidney Kent
Mr. & Mrs. Fred Kent
Mrs. Gloria Meyer
Mrs. Betty Phillips
Mr. & Mrs. Donald Zadeck
Mrs. Pauline Murov

Our member's average increase this past year was 21% with our board of directors leading by increasing over 56%. This has prevented B'nai Zion from being in a financial crisis and giving us the opportunity to plan for our future. Our long term dilemma is our aging congregation that will change our revenue dramatically in 10 years. Our only way to survive is to increase our endowment to a 4 million dollar level to generate a 5% annual distribution to stabilize our future dues loss.

I ask that you consider making an Endowment gift to ensure that B'nai Zion is here not only today but we also intend to have it here for our children and grandchildren. We have a long history and a tradition that is vital to our community.

Our annual investments keep the B'nai Zion process running all year, from Worship services to Religious Education, administrative and building operations. The Endowment fund ensures that B'nai Zion will continue to be a strong Jewish presence as we grow older, and allows the next generations to appreciate the Congregation that those who came before us established. As we end the Holy Days and approach a new fiscal year, please recognize that our needs and responsibilities grow as time passes. Your contributions are vital to us.

Respectfully,

Fred Kent

From our Educator

What a great beginning to the Religious School year! We've seen fifty kids ranging in age from three to fourteen. In addition, because we hosted a Preschool Parent Breakfast and Play Group, we've actually seen seven more who are under the age of three. That doesn't count the three teenagers who have helped us in classrooms on Sunday mornings, so now we're up to sixty kids from B'nai Zion and Agudath Achim who have begun a year of Jewish education and Jewish friendships. Not bad for a small Jewish community! We are especially glad to welcome to Shreveport Vanessa and Andrew Schachtel and their children, five year old Adyn and two year old Adysn.

Our year has started with so much activity. Adam Miller's 8th and 9th grade class has been totally rejuvenated by their young, energetic teacher. Though their field trip to visit Oakland Cemetery (the oldest burial place for Jews in Shreveport) and to clean up Greenwood Cemetery prior to the High Holy Days was canceled due to rain, they have been busy in the classroom talking about what it means to be Jewish and planning a year which will include visits to houses of worship for Christians, Muslims, and Hindus.

Barbara Joseph's 6th and 7th graders have already been to the beautiful Right-to-Play playground established by Karen Gordon so that children with disabilities can play alongside their non-disabled friends. There they learned that dreams become realities only through determination and hard work—and they also helped with some gardening and cleanup of the play area. Judith Grunes' 4th and 5th graders, along with some of their parents, experienced the first-ever Rosh Hashanah Seder to take place at B'nai Zion. The Seder is a recently-reinvented ceremony based on a Talmudic practice of eating certain fruits and vegetables at the Rosh Hashanah meal. That event could not have taken place were it not for the efforts of Rabbi Jana, Bill Braunig, Yehudit Platt, and Alison Bath. That same group of students also baked beautiful round challot for the New Year, thanks to the culinary expertise of Mrs. Grunes and Rebecca Austin, who made the delicious challah dough. Jodi Vosburg's 2nd and 3rd graders and Kris Haas' K-5 and 1st graders have been learning about Jewish holidays, visiting the Art Room, where Katherine Mahler is already doing her magic, and singing their hearts out with our newest, guitar-playing teacher, Isaac Haas. Bethany Sorkey's 3 and 4 year olds have been learning about Judaism as they play and eat and sing as only young preschoolers can. Leigh Anne Evensky and Delaney Lake are Bethany's helpers, and they are fabulous with the children.

October's first event will be the decoration of the Sukkah and the Sukkot Family Night service on Friday, October 2. Reservations are required for the dinner, but you may join us for decorating and praying at no cost! Our Sukkot dinner is one of the year's most popular: baked potatoes with lots of toppings, a generous salad bar, and yummy ice cream sundaes for dessert. Hope you'll be there to join us.

On October 9 we'll have Consecration of our K-5 class: Arden Brainis, Ryan Dalto, Jacob Garfunkel, Lila Mahler, Milena Murov, Maddy Myers, and Adyn Schachtel. Please join us as we hear these sweet young voices recite the Shema as they stand beneath a tallit during our Simchat Torah service.

We have so much to be grateful for—dedicated teachers, committed parents, and energetic children and young adults—all with a desire to experience Judaism on Sundays, on Shabbat, and throughout the weekdays. May it be a wonderful year of growth for all of us.

L'shalom,
Helaine Braunig

Sisterhood: Women of Reform Judaism

Dues for Sisterhood is $25. Statements for this year will be sent out soon. If you are already a member, or would like to join, please send $25 to B'nai Zion Sisterhood to the B'nai Zion Office. Dues help us receive benefits from our Region and the National organization.

Our Sisterhood Oneg Shabbat and Shabbat Blessings Committee is pleased to thank those who contribute to help furnish our delightful refreshments following Shabbat services, and those who agree to the honor of blessing the Shabbat candles and wine on Friday nights. Please come often to celebrate Shabbat with friends you will find Friday evenings and Saturday mornings!

ShFTY: We CAN Make a Difference

Remember to bring non-perishable, non-expired food to help the Youth Group fill the pantry at the Shreveport Food Bank. Place the food in the bins that will be at the main entrance. During Sukkot we are aware of the harvest of good food that we enjoy, and realize that we have a responsibility to help provide for those who are less fortunate. Start your new year with a simple act of Tzedakah. Together, we CAN make a difference.

Pre-School Opportunities

B'nai Zion has many opportunities for our youngest members to play and pray together. The last day of Sukkot is also Simchat Torah. Pre-schoolers and their parents will join Rabbi Jana as we dance with the Torah and shake the Lulav on Saturday, October 10 from 9:00 - 9:30 AM.

Hadassah

Shreveport Hadassah will have an Open Board Meeting Wednesday, October 7, 4 PM at the home of Carol Ginsburg. Come and share ideas for upcoming programs.

Henry S. Jacobs Camp

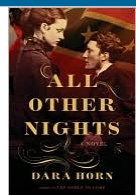

Winter Family Camp

Friday-Sunday, December 18-20, 2009

Whether you have ties to the Jacobs community, or are interested in your child experiencing Camp in action for the first time, Family Camp is for you! Family Camp is the ultimate Jewish Family Vacation and a great opportunity for parents and children of all ages to experience a Jacobs Camp Shabbat. There will be activities for the whole family, some just for kids and some just for adults. Daycare will also be provided for families with young children. Highlights of the weekend will include: A Jacobs Camp Shabbat; Adult and Family Programming; song sessions and a range of recreational activities, including the Indoor Climbing Wall, Sports, Arts & Crafts and more. Last year's Winter Family Camp was filled to capacity! Register early (at www.jacobs.urjcamps.org) to insure beds for you and your family!

People of the Book Club

Join the discussion of Dara Horn's book All Other Nights. It is an intriguing book about a young Jewish military man from the North during the Civil War who is sent to the South to infiltrate, assassinate, and spy.

SUPPORT THE SHREVEPORT JEWISH FILM FESTIVAL

Sponsorships are now available for the Shreveport Jewish Film Festival to be held at the Robinson Film Center, November 14-19. This event promises to be bigger and better than ever before with screenings at Shreveport's own state-of-the-art independent movie house. Help us bring quality films with Jewish content to our region. Sponsors can receive: onscreen recognition, acknowledgement in all publicity, and free movie/reception passes. Contact the Federation today to become a sponsor, 868-1200.

Night to Honor Israel: POSTPONED

The Christians United for Israel have postponed their Night to Honor Israel due to unforeseen circumstances. It was scheduled for October 25, but will need to be rescheduled. Please watch for further information in future bulletins.

Congressman John Fleming to Speak About Israel

Congressman John Fleming will speak about his recent trip to Israel on November 1, 2009 from 10:00 to 11:30 AM at B'nai Zion. Congressman Fleming's trip to Israel was sponsored by the American Israel Education Foundation, which is a charitable organization affiliated with the American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC). Breakfast will be provided by the Jewish Federation. Come join us at this exclusive opportunity to hear how this Louisiana Congressman intends to support Israel, and the impact that the trip made in his life.

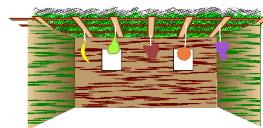

Holy Day Schedule 5770

Sukkot / Shabbat

Evening Service: Friday, October 2 6:00 PM

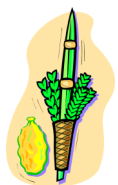

Congregational Dinner: Friday, October 2 7:00 PM

Special Sukkot Torah Study: Ecclesiastes Saturday, October 3 9:45 AM

Sukkot is a Hebrew word which means “booths” or “huts” like the ones that the Brotherhood has built for us behind B’nai Zion and on the Bimah. It is also the name of the Jewish Festival that comes five days after Yom Kippur. One Mitzvah (Commandment) for Sukkot is “Leshev BaSukkah.” Some people understand this to mean that they should “dwell in the Sukkah,” and actually sleep in theirs. The Rabbis tell us that just eating a small amount in a Sukkah will fulfill the Mitzvah.

During the week of Sukkot, please come, bring a meal and eat in the Sukkah whenever you want. Our Brotherhood builds the Sukkah so that the whole congregation can use it during the holiday.

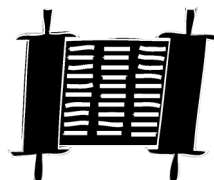

We also have sets of Lulav (myrtle, palm, willow and etrog) at B’nai Zion for you to shake in order to fulfill the Mitzvah of the Lulav. If you don’t know how, or have never done it before, just ask. We are happy to show you what to do.

There is a tradition to read the Book of Ecclesiastes on Sukkot, so our Torah Study beginning at 9:45 on Saturday, October 3 will be filled with words of wisdom and discussions based on the book known as Kohelet in Hebrew. The Torah Study will be followed by special Sukkot morning services from Mishkan Tefillah beginning around 11:00 AM.

Simchat Torah / Shabbat (includes Yizkor and Consecration)

Evening Service: Friday, October 9 6:00 PM

Tot Shabbat Service: Saturday, October 10 9:00 AM

We read through the entire cycle of Torah portions every year. We read the last section of Deuteronomy and then immediately read the first portion of Genesis to show the continuity of the Torah. This is celebrated at Simchat Torah -- which means “Joy of Torah.” Simchat Torah falls at the end of Sukkot. We take out the Torah scrolls and march and dance and sing with them to show our joy. Since it is the last day of a Biblically ordained Festival, we will remember those who have died (Yizkor) as part of the service.

As is the custom in many congregations, we also have a Consecration ceremony for our new Kindergarten students. It is important to come and celebrate Simchat Torah and show our young families our support and pride in their commitment to Jewish learning. We hope you will be celebrating with us.

Before our 9:45 AM Torah Study and 11:00 AM Simchat Torah morning service (with Yizkor again), we will be worshipping in a service geared toward our youngest members and their families. Tot Shabbat service will be from 9:00 - 9:30 AM on Saturday, October 10. It will give our youngest children a chance to end the festival of Sukkot by shaking the lulav, and celebrate Simchat Torah by dancing with the Torah. Rabbi Jana will lead the festivities and worship.

Sukkot Worship and Congregational Dinner

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2:

Everyone is invited to help the Religious School decorate the Sukkah at 5:00 PM.

We will celebrate Shabbat and Sukkot with a child friendly service which will begin at 6:00 PM, followed by our Annual Harvest Dinner:

Baked Potato Bar, Salad Bar, Ice Cream Sundae Bar

Don't Miss This -- It Is One Of Our Most Popular Events --and It Is For ALL AGES.

Cost: AFTER Tuesday, September 22

$10.00 for adults

$6.00 for children 7-12

$4.00 for children 6 and under.

We prefer not to handle money on Shabbat, therefore Pre-payment is appreciated

New Books for New Torah Study for the New Year

After Simchat Torah (beginning October 17) we plan to turn our Torah Study on Saturday mornings into Haftarah Study, when we will be studying selections from the Prophets. B'nai Zion will try to have enough books available to read from, as we study on Saturday mornings. If you would like to help defray the costs, or purchase your own copies:

One book = $18

Two books = $25

You may choose to donate the books, or keep whatever you purchase.

The books have arrived, and we are still accepting payments toward donations or purchase.

The books we will be using are The Haftarah Commentary by W. Gunther Plaut and Chaim Stern, who edited the Torah Commentary we have been using. We have copies to view at the office.

Adult Education with Rabbi Jana

Let My People Know

Beginning Hebrew

Rabbi Jana will teach "Hebrew from Day One" class on Tuesdays from noon until 1:00 PM. You can learn the whole Aleph-Bet in six enjoyable lessons beginning October 13. The text will be Rabbi Jana's own Primer that teaches you to read Hebrew by examining the first day of Creation at the beginning of Genesis and the Decalogue from Exodus. Not only will you be learning the letters, but you will be able to gain insights into the Torah that you would never have access to without this class. Examine the sounds of the Creation story and the linguistic implications of the Creation. Hear the story the way it was meant to be heard. Contact the office or register at www.HebrewDoc.com if you want to take the class, to be sure that we have enough copies of the text and audio materials for everyone.

Basic Judaism

Explore Jewish beliefs, customs, rituals, holidays, life cycle events, culture and more. To enrich or refresh your knowledge of Judaism, or to train for conversion to Judaism, and more with Rabbi Jana. Classes will meet Tuesdays from 11:00 - noon beginning October 13, 2009.

Support Our Congregant's Programs

Julie Miller will have her art displayed as part of the Cosmorama exhibition at the Karpeles Manuscript and Library Museum, 3201 Centenary Boulevard from October 3 through October 30.

Chuck Kesilman notes that every Monday-Friday, 9 AM-10 AM on your computer, if you go to NBRN.FM, and request his songs like "Hey Rah, He's the Guitar Man," "Only If I Could," and "Why Are We Just Friends," Keith Bradford, president of the station and president of KMA Records, will play the song within minutes.

Jeffrey Goodman's movie "The Last Lullaby" will soon be released on DVD. Please help show the popularity of this movie by joining the Last Lullaby groups on Facebook, Twitter, blog and updates. Go to www.TheLastLullaby.com for more information.
