

A Prayer of Gratitude (Page 169)

We thank you, Adonai, for knowing us, for granting us a measure of fullness, a fulfillment of small hopes, and many yearnings. Thank You for the gift of this day. May the gratitude in our hearts and the sense of fullness that we feel now continue to sustain us, taking root in our souls, even as we continue to dream and pray. “it is good to thank You, Adonai, and to sing to Your name, transcendent God” (Psalm 92:2). Give us strength to see the gift in each new day You grant.
