

This Week's News from Michelle

~~ May 3, 2020 ~~

Although last week would have been our last Religious school contact day and it would have been our Jewish Food and Cultural Festival complete with falafel and baked goods, here we are...still meeting on Zoom. For those of you that have been participating, thank you! For those of you who haven't joined in yet, please do it is so wonderful to get to "see" you. We will continue to meet at 9:15 on Sunday mornings. Our format is different each week! Sometimes we pray, hear a book, hear a story, learn about holidays, understand more about mitzvot. If you have joined us, reach out and let a friend that hasn't yet, know about your experience and hopefully more and more people will join in. The B'nai Mitzvah class is going strong and still meeting each week. Kudos to them! SAVE THE DATE: We will have the B'nai Mitzvah class joining in on a Shabbat morning service and will participate via Zoom on Saturday morning, May 16th. They had originally been planning on doing a play, but now they will each share something insightful with us. As we get closer, Rabbi will send out the link so you can ALL participate. Honestly, it is so refreshing and uplifting to see everyone and be together as we all ride out this tide.

If anyone needs to talk please reach out to us and call or e-mail if that is an easier start. We are here to be supportive. Call someone, Facetime, and stay connected and stay safe!
