

The Queens Jewish Center Presents

As we head into longer Friday nights and continue to spend lots of time at home on Shabbos, Rabbi Judah Kerbel is hosting a book club.

While we may not be entirely physically together, we can share community by reading in tandem and coming together for discussion. While this is meant to enhance Shabbos programming, of course feel free to read at your convenience. Feel free to read one or all of these books and join the discussion!

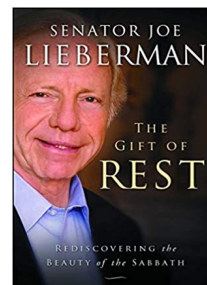

Discussions will take place on Motzaei Shabbos at 7:30 pm over Zoom
