The Shemitta Sensation:
Should We All Be Taking a Sabbatical Now?
Shemitta Lessons for Contemporary Society

As the world continues to halt due to a pandemic, Shemitta's social and economic messages become all the more significant. Its lessons provide direction for modern society while also underscoring the dramatic rebirth of Jewish life in the land of Israel and suggests the ingredients necessary for its continued advancement.

Rabbi Binyamin Zimmerman is an author and educator. He serves as Director of Mizrahi Musmachim, Co-Director of Matan, Educational Director of the Zomet Institute of Halakha and Technology, and founder and Director of H.E.S.B.E.R. (hesber.org), that produces educational materials. He authored "From the Source; with Spirit" a series of educational books used throughout the English speaking Jewish world. Rabbi Zimmerman is a sought after lecturer on halakha and technology, Israel, and innovative educational techniques.
